DAY 2 Train to Ranthambore National Park; Game drive

After an early start, we will board the Golden Temple Mail train to Sawai Madhopur. Leaving the bustling platform of New Delhi station behind, the train will journey into the serene countryside of Northern India. Travelling by train in India is one of the great travel experiences, with almost 20 million people a day using the railways; often it seems, to move their entire villages! There is no better opportunity for interacting with local people and taking in the sights, smells and sounds of Indian life, whilst enjoying the beautiful and diverse Indian countryside as we pass through. On arrival at Sawai Madhopur we will be met, and driven the short distance to Ranthambore National Park, where we'll check into our wildlife safari lodge which will be our home for the next three nights. Set in natural surroundings these lodges are typically located around Ranthambore National Park and provide the ideal base for exploring wildlife in the area, as well providing a number of leisure facilities for those wanting to sit back and enjoy the pool and beautiful surroundings. This afternoon we take our first game drive in the park. Travelling in a jeep we will journey through the picturesque landscape in search of the iconic Bengal tiger. The excitement will build as we pass beautiful lakes, old hunting manors and dense forests while our park rangers expertly follow tiger tracks and listen for warning calls to signal that tigers may be close. With so much other wildlife to observe, you will be surprised how quickly the three hour game drive goes.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

DAY 3 Morning and afternoon game drives

Rising early, we'll venture into the park before sunrise in a bid to maximise our chances of seeing a tiger. Watching the wildlife wake as dawn breaks over the beautiful landscape, we'll continue our exploration of the expansive national park. The surrounding cliffs and rocky outcrops provide the perfect home for spotting wildlife such as sloth bear, langur, jackal and fox. We also hope to spot some of the many impressive birds resident in the area, including the crested hawk eagle, crested serpent eagle, jacana, parakeet and white-breasted kingfisher. After making the most of our morning in the park, we will return to the hotel for a late breakfast before heading out to visit Ranthambore's stunning fort. Situated on a natural escarpment with a number of sheer drops up to 65 metres in height, the historic fort provides a perfect vantage point from which to admire breathtaking views over the Sawai Man Singh Sanctuary. This afternoon, we will return to the park for our second game drive of the day. Exploring the park in greater depth, we will continue our search for the majestic tiger. With over 40 species of mammals, 300 species of birds, 45 species of reptiles and over 300 species of plants, Ranthambore National Park has been a firm favourite for many wildlife photographers for years and as the sun slowly sets over the horizon, you will see why.

In the afternoon we will return to the park for the last game drive of the trip. Making the most of the stunning surroundings and diverse wildlife, it is little wonder that this was once one of the best hunting areas of the Maharajahs. We will stay in the park until sunset, watching the landscape transform in the changing light; a good time to reflect on our experience and the wildlife that we have seen.

DAY 5 Travel by train back to Delhi

This morning we will depart Ranthambore and board the Jan Shatabdi Express to arrive in Delhi early afternoon. Travelling among the locals once again, we'll have time to enjoy the views of this amazing country and the people who make their home and livelihood along the trackside. Arriving back in the bustling city, a world away from the serene national park, a local guide will give a fascinating tour of New Delhi. Whilst we cannot enter we will view the main sights including Lok Sabha, the President's Palace and India Gate, we will learn about the history of these iconic sites. Later in the afternoon we set off to explore Old Delhi on foot before enjoying an exhilarating cycle rickshaw ride through the back streets, alleyways and side roads of the old town where a jamboree of deafening barter, vivid colours and smells await us. Dodging the crowds and traffic, the rickshaw ride gives a good insight into everyday life in India and travels past the striking Red Fort and traditional Jama Masjid Mosque before finally heading back to our hotel and our last evening in Delhi.

Accommodation and Meals

Accommodation Rating

Accommodation in India is as varied as the country itself. On our tours we stay in a mix of hotels, heritage properties, camp sites and homestays. Standards do not equate to standards in the UK and it's best to approach each type of accommodation with an open mind. Service can be slow in places especially when travelling with a group. For the most part hotels do not have heating so in the winter months it can be chilly and if you feel the cold you may wish to ask for extra blankets. Hot water is not always available 24 hours a day in some of the smaller properties, and with a group staying you might find if you are showering last you may miss out on the hottest water.

Food & Drink

Included meals: 5 breakfasts, 2 lunches,3 dinners included in the price of this tour. Please be prepared to pay for non-included meals. Please note that costs for drinks and meals can vary depending on location.

Budgeting for your Tour

You will need some extra money to cover meals and drinks not included in the tour price, any optional sightseeing, souvenirs and items of a personal nature such as laundry.

Food

The costs for meals may vary depending upon location, type of restaurant and number of courses eaten and so the prices given are an average guide.Local restaurants located off the beaten track may be less expensive, whereas an upmarket restaurant located in the centre of a major city may charge more.

India

Lunch £: 6.00

Dinner £: 8.00

Drink

The prices for drinks can vary greatly depending upon location and the prices detailed below are an average guide. In general you would expect that drinks purchased in a supermarket or local bar to be less expensive, whilst drinks in an upmarket bar or restaurant may be more expensive.

India

Bottle of Beer £: 1.40

Water £: .50

Other Sightseeing & Activities

The following excursions and/or activities are usually available and may be arranged locally. Estimated costs are provided below for guidance only, are on a per person basis unless shown otherwise, and may depend on the number of participants. Prices quoted are correct as of the date these tour notes were originally issued but may change at any time due to currency fluctuations.

Please note: These activities are booked and paid for direct with the supplier and do not form part of your Explore holiday contract.

Optional Excursions

Private Jeep Safari - 1-6 people, £110
Shared Jeep Safari - £22 per person

Tipping - Tour Leader

At your discretion you might also consider tipping your Tour Leader in appreciation of the efficiency and service you receive. The sum you choose to give is entirely personal, but as a guide, £2 per person per day would be a reasonable starting point. The'tips kitty that is collected for general tips as detailed above is separate from anything you would like to consider for your Tour Leader.

Tipping - Local Crew

Although entirely voluntary, tipping is a recognized part of life in this region of the world. In order to make things easier for you, the Tour Leader will suggest to the group that they organise a group tips kitty upon arrival, suggesting approximately 1000 Rupees (£10) per person. This kitty is then used by the Tour Leader to tip on behalf of the group for local guides, hotel porters, waiters, drivers etc… so you don't have to worry about it. They will account for any organised tipping throughout the tour, and will return any unused funds at the end. Our local support staff and the people who work for Explore are treated fairly and are paid a fair wage.

Foreign Exchange

India

ATM Availability: ATMs are available in most large cities in India but they are very limited elsewhere so please do not rely on this.

Credit Card Acceptance: Very rarely, only in the larger outlets.

Travellers Cheques: Opportunities to exchange are limited.

Local Currency: Indian Rupee

Recommended Currency for Exchange: GBP/US$ are the best currency to change into local currency.

Where to Exchange: The Indian rupee is a restricted currency and it is best not to obtain in the UK as rates are very poor. You can either change money at the airport on arrival or in major towns during the tour. Your Tour Leader will advise you on the best places in each town.

Visa Information

India: A single entry visa is required by British travellers to India and must be obtained prior to departure. Please note, from the 14th March 2015, all British Indian-visa applicants must be present at an Indian Visa & Consular Service Centre on the day of application. It is advised you register prior to visiting your chosen visa application centre to book your appointment otherwise you may experience long delays.

It is not possible to obtain an Indian visa directly from the Embassy. Therefore, Indian visas should be applied for through VFS global and further details of the new visa process and location of the application centres can be found here http://in.vfsglobal.co.uk/visa_types.html. Our recommended visa service; Visaswift, can also offer assistance, including setting an appointment, lodging the application and collecting the visa on your behalf - http://www.visaswift.com/explore.aspx . Other nationalities should consult their local embassy or consular office.

All visa information is subject to change. There is a high probability that the process will change to include the collection of biometric data but a date for this is not yet confirmed. You should confirm all visa related questions with the relevant Embassy prior to departure. Tiger Safari permit requirements: Ranthambore National Park is closely managed by the Indian Authorities and recently significant changes have been made to the process of booking game drives in the park. The number of vehicles permitted to enter the park at any one time has been severely reduced and all game drives must now be booked and paid for well in advance. In order to secure a booking we must provide full passport details and full payment for the safari at the time of booking. Game drives are non-refundable. Once a game drive has been booked no changes are permitted. In order to proceed with bookings we require the following: Full passport details - if you are currently renewing your passport then you will need to take both passports with you on all game drives. We cannot guarantee the operation of any game drives until the necessary permits have been purchased. We aim to purchase the permits as soon as they are put on sale, whilst this is usually at 90 days before the date of the game drive on going changes to the booking system means that we cannot guarantee this. We aim to book all of our game drives in shared jeeps, with a maximum of 6 passengers per jeep with a driver and naturalist guide. Park regulations are in place to keep the number of vehicles in the park at any time to a minimum and as a result of this on occasion we will be sharing jeeps with non-Explore passengers. We recommend you book as early as possible in order to have the best chance of securing a space on a game drive. We will purchase seats for all passengers as soon as permits become available, usually 3 months prior, after this point it is not always possible to secure additional spaces.

Non Refundable Deposit

At the time of booking we will require the standard Explore deposit of 10% of your holiday cost, plus a further £100 per person towards your game drives. Once the game drive is booked this additional deposit is non-refundable. If for any reason we are unable to secure the game drives or the tour is cancelled then you will receive a full refund. We cannot guarantee the operation of any game drives until the necessary permits have been purchased. Preparing for your Tour

Climate

India

There is considerable variation between the different regions of India but, in general, the climate is tropical. Summer temperatures on the plains are very hot, but cooled by the South-West Monsoon, which lasts from June- September. During these months it can be very wet and therefore very humid. At altitude, temperatures can become quite cool at night even in the summer and may drop below freezing between December and February so warm clothing is necessary. In the winter, northern and mid India can be very cool, with cold evenings, so warm clothing, including plenty of layers, are essential. The south of India remains warm and sunny during the winter months.

Clothing

In general only lightweight casual clothing is needed for your time in India, especially during the daytime. However you should bring a warm sweater/fleece to wear for early morning game drives as well as for use during the winter evenings, typically from November through to mid-March. The coldest months fall over December and January, where a windproof jacket, several warm layers, gloves and hat are recommended.

Local people may be offended by western styles of dress. Men and women should cover their shoulders and wear clothing below the knee. Women especially should dress conservatively as not to cause offence; brief shorts, tight fitting clothing, short skirts are should be avoided by both men and woman. Avoid bright colours for game viewing.

Equipment

Bring good binoculars, a water bottle, mosquito spray and a small torch.

Footwear

Comfortable shoes/trainers and sandals.

Luggage: On Tour

One main piece of baggage and a daysac. Remember you are expected to carry your own baggage, so don't overload yourself.

Luggage allowance on tour: 20kg

Transport

In order to make reservations on Indian trains we require your full passport details. It is important that we receive these details as soon as possible so we are ready to make the arrangements as soon as train tickets are available to buy.

Travelling on an Indian train is a fantastic experience, with millions using the rail network every day it is the perfect opportunity to meet local families. Due to the system for booking train tickets in India, whilst we'll try to ensure groups are as close together as possible, it may not be possible to have customers sat together in the same carriages. In such cases our Tour Leaders will help everyone to find their seats and ensure you get the most out of your journey.
