Carbon Offsets Included

As part of our responsible tourism policy we offset carbon emissions from all customer and staff flights booked by Explore. Our carbon offset partner is Climate Care. If you are making independent flight arrangements to join one of our tours, may we urge you to offset your carbon emissions through Climate Care, or a similar offsetting scheme.

Roman scholar, once described the High Atlas Mountains as "the most fabulous mountains in all of Africa". Covering some 1,500 miles they remain a region that exudes a wild remoteness and beauty that has been lost in many other parts of the world. Populated by the staunchly independent Berber tribesmen, the Atlas has always been culturally removed from the rest of Morocco and provides us with a quite unique setting for our short family adventure. Our journey begins in the vibrant city of Marrakech, with its bustling souks and narrow alleyways, alive with the smells, colour and chaos reminiscent of the heady days of the 'Arabian Nights'. Our time here will include the opportunity to explore something of this most enigmatic of cities, from the fascinating Djemaa El Fna Square, to its spectacular mosques and museums, before we leave for the spectacular foothills of the Atlas Mountains. Our first stop is the village of Imllil, nestled amidst the isolated beauty of the Jebel Toukbal and from where we walk to the Berber village of Aremd (it may be possible to hire a mule locally). The landscapes are magnificent and the views will remain etched in your memories long after you have returned home. Continuing to Ouirgane we have the opportunity to explore the Berber settlements and stunning vistas on our own, before a dramatic descent through the Tizi n' Test pass which brings us down to the southern slopes of the mountains and sees us spend two nights in the a night in the walled town of Taroudant. From here we continue to the coast and the lovely resort town of Essaouira, lying along Morocco's spectacular Atlantic coast. A stunning blend of Arab and colonial influences makes this engaging town the perfect climax to our journey, allowing us a chance to unwind and enjoy something of its special charm, before our journey returns full circle to the vibrant streets of Marrakech.

Riads and Kasbahs

Riads are renovated and converted townhouses located in the medinas of Morocco's cities. The buildings themselves tell stories of times past and give a glimpse of almost unimaginable opulence and wealth. These buildings help preserve the local architectural culture and heritage of Morocco and play an important part in recording Morocco's history. Riads are arranged around a shaded central courtyard that typically has a fountain and trees to provide shelter and respite from the heat of the day for its inhabitants and each room has its own personality and charm. Kasbahs are large fortified country houses usually enclosed by high walls to protect those inside from hostile attack. The buildings and walls are all

Earth Matters

- On this tour we visit an Argan oil cooperative in Tamaran on our way to Essaouira. The cooperative is the oldest of its kind in Morocco. The money earned by the woman provides access to health care and enables their children to attend school. The cooperative currently provides employment for 104 women.

made from natural materials found in Morocco. In this hot country it is usually red earth and straw. We stay in places with a Moroccan character wherever possible though reliability of reservations has affected our choice in some destinations.

Please note that as the riads have individual rooms which can differ quite dramatically in size from one to the other, your tour leader will take this into consideration in an attempt to allocate rooms fairly amongst the group throughout the tour.

Walking Grades and Fitness:

Grading is a somewhat difficult topic as much depends on the individual's own perception of his or her abilities. The following is intended as a general guide to our walking grades. This is rated easy, although it must be stressed that all walks are optional.

Easy: Tend to be short day walks and rambles at low altitudes. Grade A walks can be enjoyed by anyone who leads a reasonably active life and no special preparation is required.

LAND ONLY ITINERARY

Be Prepared: While our intention is to adhere to the day-to-day route published below, a degree of flexibility is built into the itinerary.

Accommodation and Included Meals: please find the key to our accommodation ratings overleaf, and note that included meals are indicated in the itinerary below and are shown on the day they are provided (B = breakfast, L = lunch, D = dinner).

Day 1. Join tour Marrakech
2 nights Riad hotel H++.

Day 2. In Marrakech; walking tour

Like many North African towns, Marrakech is divided into two distinct parts, the Gueliz (the modern French-built city) and the Medina (the Old City). For generations it has been a meeting place for the mountain Berbers and the desert peoples of the south, who come to trade and barter amongst the colourful souks, turning the centre of the old city into a rich cacophony of noise and colour. We'll take traditional caleshes (horse drawn carriages) to the main square then journey out into this vibrant city on foot, to enjoy a tour of some of its most enthralling sites with a local guide. You can wander past vendors selling doughnuts and fried grasshoppers, meander through native markets where Muslim women, their hands and feet dyed with henna, call out to sell their wares, and enjoy the sounds and the smells of the exotic. After our tour there will be the option to stay in town and make your own way back to the hotel, taking time to enjoy more of the remarkable Medina, perhaps haggling for a bargain or two, or simply sitting at one of the local cafés and watching the street tableaux unfold before you. The city's beating heart is the spectacular Djemma-el-Fna, a site not to be missed and a scene straight out of the pages of the Arabian Nights. You will find the square alive with storytellers and musicians, jugglers and acrobats, snake charmers and clowns. Marrakech is a city like no other and a walk through its bustling streets will fill the senses and fire the imagination. The city boasts a staggering array of spectacular architecture and wonderful facades, but do remember that many of the mosques will be forbidden to non-Muslims and be careful of photographing women, however photogenic they look, as the Moroccans are very sensitive about such things. If you are unsure, it is always best to ask.

(Included meals: B).

Day 3. Drive to Imlil in the High Atlas; walk

Riad Ifoulki, Marrakech

This charming Riad is located just off the famed Djemma-el-Fna was formerly 5 houses which have been combined to create a magnificent complex with salons, small terraces and, of course, the main courtyard. The traditionally decorated guest rooms, all complete with four poster beds, overlook the tranquil inner courtyard. Relax on the roof terraces and enjoy a soak and massage in the Riad's own hammam.

to Aremd & drive on to Ouirgane

Leaving the city behind, we drive south today, towards the craggy peaks and plunging valleys of the Toubkal Massif. Crossing the Haouz Plain we pass through the tiny town of Asni, from where our road begins to climb towards the foothills of the Massif. Below us the valley of the Oued Rhrhaia stretches out into the distance and small villages cling to the sides of the steep hills as we meander our way towards the village of Imlil. The towering peaks of the High Atlas are North Africa's greatest range of mountains, a wild region, culturally removed from the rest of Morocco, and a barrier between the northern plains and the pre-Sahara. This is the land of the fiercely independent Berbers, the "Lords of the Atlas", whose traditions and ways still hold sway up here in their mountain strongholds far away from the cities below. The Berbers present us with a unique view of a way of life lost to the rest of North Africa, where music and dance, even language and religion, are far removed from their Arab neighbours. From Imlil we walk to the village of Aremd, at once transporting ourselves into another world where mule tracks follow the contours of the mountains, past precariously balanced villages and across a landscape of remarkable flora and fauna. Following the course of the Mizane

River, we traverse the meandering slopes of the valley to a network of terraced fields, where barley, potatoes and fruit cling to the valley walls. Aremd is built above a massive moraine spur and on arrival we will head for the house of a local Berber family for lunch, before returning back to Imlil to rejoin our vehicle for the drive to Ouirgane. Providing mules are not being used by the locals to carry loads from village to village, there may be the option to hire mules for those not wishing to walk the route between Imlil and Aremd, allowing your trusty steeds to follow the same mountain tracks that their ancestors have for centuries. 2 nights Kasbah hotel H++. (Included meals: B, L, D).

Day 4. Free day for optionals

La Bergérie, Ouirgane

Just as the High Atlas Mountains rise from the plains, we reach Ouirgane and the comfortable Bergerie. The hotel is newly built from local stone and our individual bungalows are dotted around the peaceful gardens which attract a variety of birds. There is also a large swimming pool. Staff here are particularly welcoming and on hand to help organise some great activities in our free time.

Ksar Shama

Situated in the heart of the Atlas Mountains the Ksar Shama is located at the gateway to the National Toubkal Park. It offers spectacular views of the white capped Atlas Peaks. The rooms are all built in a traditional style of adobe walls and wood log ceilings, and have AC, a fire place & a private terrace.

Ouirgane presents the perfect spot to relax and enjoy the magnificent scenery of this superb part of North Africa. Today has been left free to enjoy something of its abundant charms at your own pace, with a number of optional activities available to make the most of your time here. Walking in the valley offers some wonderful ways to spend the day. There are also opportunities for swimming or visiting a Berber village to learn something more of the unique lifestyles of these most remarkable and hospitable of people. (Included meals: B, D).

Day 5. Drive to Taroudant via Tizi n' Test

Heading south today, we will first visit the Tin Mal Mosque. Built in 1156, it is one of the only mosques open to non-Muslims. After our visit we take a dramatic drive through the spectacular Tizi n' Test pass and down into the region of the High Atlas. At 2092m the views from the pass can be quite spectacular, with views back across to the Toubkal Massif and down into the Souss Valley presenting us with some magnificent photo opportunities. Our descent is something of an exhilarating ride, dropping an incredible 1600 metres in just 30 km. The views, as you can imagine, are incredible, with mountain peaks and tiny villages nestling amongst the valley slopes laid out before us. Finally we reach Taroudant. 2 nights Riad hotel H++ (included meals: B).

Riad Dar Zitoune

Just outside the town itself, Dar Zitoune enjoys a peaceful setting in extensive grounds. Bungalows are arranged around a lush garden whose central feature is the large swimming pool, fringed with palms, built in the shape of a traditional Moroccan door. All rooms are decorated in traditional style to a high standard.

Day 6 In Taroudant

Taroudant has lain at the centre of political life of the Souss Valley for generations. Lying before the imposing backdrop of the Anti-Atlas Mountains, amidst a landscape of olive groves and orange orchards, the town lies behind an impressive bastion of fortified towers and some of the best-preserved walls in the country. Strategically important and site of the region's most important market, Taroudant once commanded a network of major trading routes and even today its bustling market lies at the centre of life. Today has been left free for you to explore or simply relax in the pleasant surroundings of this hidden corner of Morocco. We recommend a tour of the city walls, perhaps by calesh. You can climb up the gate to enjoy great views of the surrounding gardens and olive groves which adjoin the walls and over to the countryside beyond. A visit to the local souks is also recommended and jewellery here is particularly good. For the more energetic there may be the possibility to take an optional hike in the surrounding area. (Included meals: B).

Day 7. Driver to Essaouira via Agadir

Joining the coast road at Amesnaz, we head for the resort town of Essaouira today, a mecca for water sports enthusiasts from all over the region. If time allows we may stop off en route at the wide, sandy beaches close to Agadir. Situated within the confines of its 15th century Portuguese fortifications, Essaouira has a lively yet relaxed feel to it, where whitewashed houses and traditional fishing boats present a perfect backdrop for our stay. The town has a rich and somewhat colourful history and its importance as a trading port during the 18th and 19th centuries saw it prosper, attracting British, French, Arab and Jewish merchants and sailors to its shores. These influences are still reflected in the architecture and layout of the town. An interesting, and it has to be said wholly suspect, legend claims the town's patron saint to be a Scotsman by the name of McDougal, who was believed to have been washed up onto these shores after a storm in the 14th century. Another interesting footnote is that much of Orson Welles's version of Othello was filmed here, its ramparts and coastline providing a rich and original setting for Shakespeare's Moorish tragedy. 2 nights Riad hotel H++. (Included meals: B).

EXPLORE ACCOMMODATION RATINGS : An important feature of many Explore tours is the wide range of accommodation used, and since the beginning our philosophy has been to select accommodation to suit the itinerary - not the other way round.

To help gauge the comfort level on your chosen tour, we have graded the accommodation standards at all night-stops using the rating guide below. Please keep in mind however that standards can vary from one trip to the next, and occasionally we may need to change a night-stop without advance warning.

Hotels / lodges / guesthouses - or similar

H+ : Standard hotels, lodges or guesthouses, usually with twin or single rooms and en suite facilities. These are generally standard, no-frills hotels with adequate amenities and service standards. Whilst comfort levels are perfectly acceptable to most, please don't expect too much! These are often small, family run establishments.

H : Basic hotels, lodges or guesthouses (also village houses, mountain huts, hotels etc often come into this category). Accommodation may be communal or dorm-style, and WC / washing facilities are usually shared. Running hot and cold water may be unreliable or even unavailable. These can be the most rewarding and memorable places to stay, but comfort levels are low.

Camping

C : Basic camping in wild camps where facilities / amenities may be limited or non-existent. Generally there is no running water, and we dig a temporary bush toilet. Two person tents are often used, but occasionally we sleep under the stars. Participation normally required and sleeping bags usually not provided.

Note: other accommodation, for example, aboard boats or on overnight sleeper trains is described individually at the appropriate point in the tour itinerary above.

Dar Loussia, Essaouira

Our comfortable hotel in Essaouira is located in the heart of the old city, right by one of the historic city gates. Being built over 5 storeys, it is somewhat larger than many Riads though only having 24 rooms, the atmosphere is still intimate. The simple décor and use of colour adds a real touch of class and sense of luxury. Rooms are spacious and modern and there is also a hammam. There are fantastic views of the beach from the roof terrace; a perfect place to enjoy a sundowner after a day's sightseeing!

Day 8. Free day for optionals

Your time here today is free to indulge as you wish. We suggest a stroll around the old town or along the fine sandy beach from the harbour. Not to be missed is a visit to the Medina, but be warned, after passing through the narrow, highly decorated arched entrance, it may be hard to resist snapping up some of the locally made rustic leather belts, gleaming gold and silver jewellery and wooden boxes exquisitely inlaid with mother of pearl. The town abounds with galleries and workshops, cafes and souks, making it a pleasurable way to pass the day. For the more active amongst you, you may prefer to take to the beaches for some opportunities to enjoy some walks along the coast. Swimming is possible but please take local advice before entering the water as the surf off these beaches can prove to be too much for less able swimmers. (Included meals: B).

Day 9. Free morning, then drive back to Marrakech

With some extra free time this morning to enjoy the last of Essaouira's laid back ambience, or perhaps grab a last minute bargain, we then head back once more to the eclectic delights of the 'Red City' of Marrakech where, on arrival, there may be some time to explore something more of this wholly captivating city before our final evening. Overnight Riad hotel H++ (Included meals: B).

Day 10. Tour ends Marrakech (Included meals: B).

Booking a Single Room

All of our tours are planned and operated on a twin-share basis, meaning that the standard cost is based either on individual travellers sharing accommodation with another group member of the same sex, or people who book together sharing accommodation. On this particular tour we are pleased to be able to offer customers the option of pre-booking a guaranteed single room. Single accommodation is available on all night stops.

PERSONAL EXPENSES

You'll also need some extra money to cover meals not included in the tour price, other sightseeing, souvenirs and items of a personal nature such as laundry.

Foreign Exchange

Local Currency: Moroccan Dirham (MAD).

Recommended Currency for Exchange:

Euros, Sterling and US$ are widely accepted. We recommend you take cash and a credit card.

Where to Exchange: Your tour leader will advise you on arrival.

ATM Availability: ATMs are available in main towns/cities; Maestro, Visa and Mastercard are generally accepted, while others may not be. Do not rely solely on cash machines, as they can be unreliable.

Credit Card Acceptance: Larger hotels and shops.

Travellers Cheques: Travellers Cheques can

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Seasonal Climate

May to October is the hot, dry season, when summer temperatures can sometimes reach 38°C and above. Skies are usually clear in mountain areas and weeks can go by without a cloud, however afternoons can bring clouds, offering a welcome relief from the hot sun. There is also usually a refreshing breeze, which makes walking conditions more comfortable. Be aware that snowfalls can occur in the mountains during the winter season from November to April, the amount on high ground usually reaching its maximum in March. May-June is pleasant for those interested in mountain flowers, by June all the winter snows have gone and between Sep-Oct the summer's heat moderates. Normally at the end of October the first light winter snows begin to fall at high altitudes. Come prepared for cold conditions at higher altitudes, particularly if travelling in May, June or Sept when the days can be hot, but the nights can be cold.

Additional information and climate charts can be accessed at <http://www.explore.co.uk/weather>. Seasonal weather patterns can be unpredictable. Up-to-date information on the weather worldwide can be found by following the BBC weather link on this page.

Visa Requirements

Entry visas are NOT required by UK, AUS, NZ, USA & CAN citizens Other nationalities should consult the relevant consulate.

All visa information is subject to change. You should confirm all visa related issues with the relevant Embassy prior to departure.

Vaccinations & Protection

Nothing compulsory, but we recommend protection against malaria, typhoid, hepatitis A, tetanus, diphtheria and polio.

Special Note: Visa and vaccination requirements are subject to change and should be confirmed before departure. This is not an exhaustive list.

Further information regarding vaccinations and travel health advice can be found by following the NHS and NaTHNaC links at <http://www.explore.co.uk/Travelhealth/> and from your local healthcare provider.

Electric Supply and Plugs

For comprehensive information regarding voltages and plug types in use in the countries visited, follow the relevant link at <http://www.explore.co.uk/Traveladvice/>

Insurance

Travel insurance is compulsory for all bookings. You must take your policy document with you on tour, as your tour leader will ask to see this at the start of the trip. Your documentation must state in writing that you are the named policyholder and that the cover is valid for your period of travel. Your policy document must also indicate that you have medical expenses and emergency repatriation cover and a 24-hour contact telephone number for your Insurance Company must be shown on your documentation in case of emergency.

If you are unable to provide all this information at the start of the trip you will not be allowed to join the trip. If you have purchased Explore Insurance you should carry the Master Certificate leaflet with you, which outlines the conditions of the policy together with a copy of your Confirmation Invoice, which is your proof of purchase of insurance. Explore Worldwide are an Appointed Representative of Campbell Irvine Limited, who is authorised and regulated by the Financial Services authority.

PACKING FOR YOUR TRIP

A complete list of clothing and personal gear is contained in Explore's 'General Information booklet', available after a booking has been accepted. Here we make a few specific recommendations with regard to your tour.

Luggage: One piece of baggage and a daysac for the walks. Total allowance: 44lbs/20kgs (due to weight restrictions on our vehicles).

Clothing: Pack essentially for 'All Tours' plus 'Hot Conditions'. Summer (Apr-Oct) clothing should be lightweight, however, a warm fleece/sweater and waterproofs are also advisable, as the mountains can sometimes be cold at night, even in the summer. As the High-Atlas region is mountainous, climatic conditions are variable and whilst days can be warm and sunny, the mountain air is crisp and nights can be cool.

Morocco is a Muslim country and it is important to dress with respect for local customs. People may be offended by shorts or revealing dresses, which can attract unwelcome attention. We advise that in general both men and women should cover shoulders, upper arms and knees.

Transparent, 'plunging' necklines and tight-fitting clothes should be avoided. Women should also cover their heads when entering a sanctuary, though in general, mosques are forbidden to non-Muslims.

Footwear: Lightweight trail boots or robust trainers with good traction soles and sandals.

Equipment: We recommend a sunhat, high factor sunscreen, a torch, insect repellent and a water bottle.

Personal First Aid Kit: For an exclusively designed Explore Medical Kit, visit www.nomadtravel.co.uk/explore Need help on clothing or equipment?

Then we suggest you contact Nomad Travel, our equipment partner, who specialise in kitting people out for adventurous travel. You receive a special 10% discount in-store or online. EDUCATION FOR ALL

Very few girls from the rural communities in the High Atlas get the chance to continue their education after primary school. The colleges are not accessible to them for three main reasons:

1. Their parents cannot afford to pay for lodgings.
2. Their parents do not have the confidence in any of the facilities to entrust their daughters to be away from their rural communities.
3. The colleges are inaccessible – far away from the rural villages.

To help tackle this, Education for All has constructed the first girls' boarding house for 24 girls which was opened at Asni, 45Km from Marrakech, in April 2008. The girls are looked after by a House Mother and provided with food, some clothing and school materials. Explore are sponsoring two of the girls through school and you can read about them on our website.

What you can do

Approximately 24,000 Euros are needed each year for the running costs of this house. More funds are needed to build others and give more girls the opportunity for education.
