Suitability

We've given each of our tours a comfort rating and a tour pace, walking or cycling grade to give you a general idea about the level of activity on each tour and the standard of accommodation you will be staying in at the end of your day's adventure.

Often you'll stay in different styles of accommodation during your tour; so we make an average rating across the entire tour. For more information on where you'll stay each night, please refer to the day by day tour itinerary.

DAY 1 Depart UK

Depart the UK for Havana, arriving the same day. On arrival transfer to your hotel.

Why Book this trip?

Cuba has a hot, sub-tropical climate all year round. Most rain falls between May and October and hurricanes can occur between August and November. The cooler months are January to April with temperatures as low as 20°C, offering comfortable temperatures for exploring the island.

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Havana

Take a guided walking tour of Havana, one of Latin America's best preserved gems, visiting the delightfully restored old town and the Museum of the Revolution. Spend the afternoon soaking up the lively atmosphere of this old colonial city, and enjoy a stroll along the Malecon seafront boulevard with the setting sun.

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 3 To Viñales

Depart Havana and drive to the mountain setting of Viñales, where Cuba's most stunning scenery awaits you. The drive takes you along an empty motorway, passing by only the occasional vintage car or cyclist. Once in Vinales you will take a guided walk through a landscape of mojotes, enormous rock formations which jut out of the earth and are covered in lush vegetation. These valleys are important to Cuba's tobacco industry - some of the world's finest tobacco is grown here.

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4 To Cienfuegos and Trinidad

Drive to the colonial town of Trinidad, stopping en-route at the bayside setting of elegant Cienfuegos. You also take a diversion to the location of the Bay of Pigs invasion and learn more in the museum.

Overnight: Simple Casas Particulares

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 5 Trinidad

Lose yourself in time along the cobbled backstreets of Trinidad. Enjoy a city tour; it's well worth going up one of the church towers for panoramic views over the red-tiled roofs and Escambray Mountains providing an impressive backdrop.

Overnight: Simple Casas Particulares

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 6 Day at leisure

Today is free for you to enjoy more of Cuba's beautiful landscapes and fascinating culture at your own pace. One option is to head into the Escambray Mountains for an eight kilometre trek through the Topes de Collantes Nature Reserve Park. With its unspoilt forests and water-eroded valleys, this area is famous for its many endemic species of flora and fauna. Alternatively, you may wish to visit the deserted island of Cayo Blanco. Here you can eat fresh paella, relax on the beach and snorkel in the coral wilderness.

Overnight: Simple Casas Particulares

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7 To Havana via Santa Clara

A day well off the beaten tourist trail takes you to the monument and tomb of Che Guevara in Santa Clara before transferring back to Havana for your last evening in the vibrant capital. This evening, there's the opportunity to enjoy the famous Tropicana with plumed dancers and an amazing array of colour and music.

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 8 Depart Havana

Return on an afternoon flight to London, arriving the next day.

Cuba

The dry season is from November to April. Average temperatures are 22-26C. Though the sky is often cloudless during the dry season, cold wet snaps do come in from North America especially in Dec and Jan, when the temperatures can drop to as low as 5C at night. From May to October there are normally fine mornings and clear evenings, afternoon rains tend to be short & heavy. Temperatures are hot and humid.

Luggage allowance on trip:

Unfortunately it does occasionally happen that luggage does not always reach its destination on the same flight as its owner, or possibly it may be damaged in transit. If you are unlucky enough for this to occur, it is important that you file a PIR (Property Irregularity Report) with the airline before leaving the airport. This is essential when you come to make a claim either against the airline or from your travel insurance company
