Suitability

We've given each of our tours a comfort rating and a tour pace, walking or cycling grade to give you a general idea about the level of activity on each tour and the standard of accommodation you will be staying in at the end of your day's adventure.

Often you'll stay in different styles of accommodation during your tour; so we make an average rating across the entire tour. For more information on where you'll stay each night, please refer to the day by day tour itinerary.

DAY 1 Overnight flight to Vietnam

Fly to Hanoi on an overnight flight from the UK.

Why Book this trip?

Extending over 1600 km from north to south, the weather in Vietnam varies according to distinct climate zones hence year round travel is possible. A pleasant time to visit the north is spring and autumn as these avoid any extremes in temperature. The south has a more tropical climate with hot, humid conditions throughout much of the year with June to August registering as the wettest months.

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Hanoi

Arrive in Hanoi and check-in at the hotel. The remainder of the day is free to make your first impressions of the Vietnam's capital city. You may choose to take a walk around the shores of Hoan Kiem Lake. Situated in the centre of the city and translated as 'Lake of the Restored Sword', Hoan Kiem Lake was named after a legend in which Heaven gave the Emperor a sword used to drive the Chinese from Vietnam; after the war a turtle rose from the water and grabbed the sword taking it to the depths of the lake. If you are lucky you may even spot some turtles in the murky water.

Overnight: Hotel

 Included Meals: None

DAY 3 Hanoi sightseeing tour

Like a French provincial town with tree-lined boulevards, Hanoi is wonderfully nostalgic and a walk through the engaging streets of its Old Quarter provides an ideal introduction. Named after the various crafts and specialities of the city's artisans, each street bears such descriptive monikers as Paper Street, Silk Street and Basket Street. This practice dates back to the 13th century, when the city's original 36 guilds established themselves here, adopting a street each to differentiate them from their neighbours. The maze of alleys presents a fascinating venue to explore on foot and the area is known for its interesting 'tube' houses, whose narrow frontages give way to long rooms that stretch back. Street vendors tempt you with noodles, snacks and stir-fried delights from shoulder panniers, all adding to the charm of Hanoi's historic heart. Explore on foot and on an exciting cyclo ride which will also take you to Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum and The Temple of Literature. Founded in 1070 as a Confucian temple, the Temple of Literature was also Vietnam's first university, the Chinese style architecture and courtyards are not to be missed. In the evening watch a performance at the popular water puppet theatre.

Overnight: Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4 Halong Bay overnight junk cruise

This morning you drive out towards the magnificent Halong Bay in the Gulf of Tonkin. Thousands of jagged limestone islands rise out of the jade green waters like the hairy scales of a submerged dragon. In fact Ha Long means 'where the dragon descends to the sea' as legend tells that the rugged seascape was created by the pounding tail of a dragon as he ran from the mountains into the sea, carving islands in his wake. Enjoy the romantic scenery while cruising among the islands. You may have the chance to stop at a beach where you can take a dip in the water. It is also interesting to see the curious assortment of boats, junks and wooden sampans, their sails hoisted, gliding through the waters.

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 5 Overnight train to Hue

Spend the morning sailing, stopping to visit colourful grottos and swimming near deserted beaches. In the afternoon you'll transfer back to Hanoi and to the train station in time for your overnight train to Hue. We love an overnight train, it's a great way to take in the scenery and get chatting to the locals. However, we are aware it's not everyone's cup of jasmine tea. You could always upgrade to a flight between Hanoi and Hue. The extra cost of the flight and an extra nights hotel in Hue starts from £80 per person based on two sharing.

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 6 Perfume River cruise

You arrive in Hué, one of the great cultural and religious centres of Vietnam, a quietly impressive place and a major highlight of your holiday. The Perfume River divides the city in two and it has been the inspiration for poets and painters for many centuries. In the afternoon take a trip by boat on the Perfume River to the Thien Mu Pagoda. This lovely monastery is the oldest in Hué.

Overnight: Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7 Explore Hue's Citadel

To appreciate Hue's fascinating history you have a tour of the Old Citadel in the morning. The citadel/palace built by the Nguyen dynasty (early 1800's to 1945) has formal moats and impressive ramparts and was an exact copy of the Forbidden City in Beijing. Although most of the Inner City was destroyed during the Tet Offensive (1968), the vast outer walls and the West Wing remain and are an eloquent reminder of the palace's former glory. The afternoon is free to wander at your own pace. You may choose to hire a bike or wander the back streets and lively markets.

Overnight: Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 8 Visit Cham Museum and Marble Mountains en route to Hoi An

This morning you enjoy a scenic drive across the spectacular Col des Nuages (the pass of Ocean Clouds) to Danang, once the centre of the important Kingdom of Champa (2nd century AD - 1720). You'll visit the Cham Museum to see the extraordinary Cham sculptures. Not far from Hoi An are the magnificent Marble Mountains which are dotted with Buddhist pagodas and shrines, and were a haven for the Vietcong troops and the scene of many battles. After, continue to the historic merchant town of Hoi An.

Overnight: Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 9 Free day in Hoi An

Today has been left free for you to explore at your leisure, bicycles in Vietnam are inexpensive and a great way to get out into the surrounding countryside or perhaps take a trip to the nearby beaches. Hoi An is also renowned for its many craft and tailors' shops. You may wish to take an excursion to Quang Ngai, the site of the My Lai Massacre Memorial. The massacre was a significant turning point in the Vietnam War and the horrific story is told through a photo presentation - an emotional experience.

Overnight: Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 10 Visit My Son

A further day is spent in this lovely historic town. This morning we take an excursion to the holiest and most evocative of Vietnam's Cham sites, My Son. The Chams were dynastic lords who rejected the authority of China in 2AD and established their own kingdom. Although they benefited from strong sea links with the rest of Southeast Asia the kingdom's interior could not supply sufficient food for a strong military force. For 1000 years they managed to stave off attacks by the Vietnamese and Chinese, before being overcome by the Vietnamese in the 15th century. Travelling along the track that leads to the site is slow and bumpy and through wooded hills, but the site is certainly impressive with several groupings of Cham temples to be visited. Nowhere are the fine masonry skills of the Chams more evident than at My Son, despite the fact that much of the site was bombed in the 1960s. The afternoon is free to enjoy Hoi An further.

Overnight: Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 11 Fly to Ho Chi Minh and travel to the Mekong Delta

After a short drive to Danang Airport you fly to Ho Chi Minh City, from here your journey continues south to Ben Tre in the Mekong Delta. Surrounded by lush and fertile land the area is home to small villages and swaying coconut palms. Taking a local ferry to a nearby village, you'll explore by cycle rickshaw. Later you'll board sampans, small Chinese wooden boats, and cruise along the narrow canals that shoot off the main vein of the Mekong River. After lunch at a local house you have some free time to explore the area further. Finally you return to Ben Tre by boat where you spend the night in a local homestay. Don't fancy a homestay? Why not upgrade to a Bassac boat for the night. Common in the Mekong Delta, your Bassac boat will be either a converted rice barge or modern version based on a traditional design. Comfortable cabins and plenty of areas to relax, this is a lovely way to explore the river. Extra cost - £85 per person, based on two sharing a cabin.

Overnight: Simple Homestay

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 12 Mekong Delta to Ho Chi Minh

Spend the morning exploring the Nuoc Trong canal in the Mekong Delta, meeting some industrious locals, there may be time to see coconut processing and trading. You also have the option to walk or cycle along the canal to explore further. Later on you'll drive back to Ho Chi Minh City

Overnight: Premium Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 13 Ho Chi Minh City tour

Formerly known as Saigon, Ho Chi Minh is the largest city in Vietnam following its growth in the 1960s and 70s under the American occupation. In more recent times it was the seat of the South Vietnam government until the events that led to the country's reunification. This morning you have a guided tour of the city. Sights include a visit to the Reunification Palace, where the first communist tanks arrived into Ho Chi Minh City in April 1975. You will also visit the War Remnants Museum which provides an interesting though extremely emotive documentary of the Vietnam War and its atrocious war crimes. You'll also visit the Notre Dame Cathedral and take in some of the lovely French colonial architecture of the city. The afternoon has been left free.

Overnight: Premium Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 14 Visit the Cu Chi Tunnels

Travel out of the city to the Cu Chi Tunnels. During the war this network of over 250 km of tunnels stretched from Saigon to the Cambodian border, and included living and storage areas, first aid centres and command centres. The hidden tunnels allowed the Viet Cong to launch surprise attacks on American troops and disappear unnoticed through the disguised trapdoors. You will have the opportunity to explore the tunnels and learn more of this amazing underground base, before returning to the city. The afternoon has been left free for you to do some last minute souvenir shopping.

Overnight: Premium Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 15 Arrive UK

Transfer to the airport for your return flight to the UK.

Preparing for your Trip

Climate

Vietnam

As Vietnam is a long, narrow country from north to south climate conditions vary considerably. The climate can be divided into three distinct patterns between the north, central and south regions. The climate in the north is generally humid and subtropical, although the winter months from November to March can be colder with temperatures from 10 - 15 degrees. Summer months, May to September can be quite hot with temperatures from 30 - 35 degrees. Meanwhile south Vietnam enjoys a tropical climate all year round, with little variation throughout the year (around 27 - 32 degrees), however May to November is the rainy season when short, heavy downpours are quite frequent. Central Vietnam lies somewhere in between. The coastal strip is usually dry and hotter from April to October while November to March is wetter and cooler. A light rain jacket and small umbrella are recommended year round.

Luggage allowance on trip:

Unfortunately it does occasionally happen that luggage does not always reach its destination on the same flight as its owner, or possibly it may be damaged in transit. If you are unlucky enough for this to occur, it is important that you file a PIR (Property Irregularity Report) with the airline before leaving the airport. This is essential when you come to make a claim either against the airline or from your travel insurance company
