DAY 1 Fly to Tanzania

Depart the UK on your flight to Tanzania.

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Fly to the Selous Game Reserve

On arrival in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania's largest city, you'll head straight out again on a light aircraft to the Selous Game Reserve. Named after the explorer and hunter Frederick Courtney Selous, the Selous is the largest game reserve in Africa and incredibly is almost the size of Switzerland. Located in the south-east of Tanzania the grassy plains, forests and open woodlands are home to the endangered African wild dog, buffalo, lion, leopard, impala, kudu, eland, zebra and over 50% of Tanzania's elephant population. At the heart of the reserve the Rufiji River cuts through the landscape, creating lakes and swamplands, home to some astounding birdlife including pelicans, storks, waders, kingfishers, eagles, ibises, vultures and much more. Depending on the time of your arrival you may have the opportunity to go on an afternoon game drive.

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 3 Safari in the Selous Game Reserve

The Selous is one of the largest undisturbed wilderness areas in Africa and one of the largest wildlife reserves in the world; as such the Selous earned its UNESCO World Heritage Site status in 1982. There are a variety of activities available from your camp, this morning why not head out on a game drive with your expert guide who will help you spot African wild dog, buffalo, giraffe, eland, hyena, sable, hippo, crocodile, kudu, baboon, wildebeest, zebra, impala and hartebeest, the park is also home to over 450 species of bird.

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 4 Walking safari and boat safari on the Rufiji River

Exploring the Selous is exciting however you choose to do it - on foot, in a jeep or from a boat! Venture out on foot early in the morning before the temperatures rise and your safari guide will help you spot smaller wildlife, such as the "Little Five" - elephant shrew, buffalo weaver, leopard tortoise, ant lion and rhino beetle. Look for footprints, insects, birdlife and flora and fauna that may be missed while in a safari truck. Much of the game viewing in the reserve is concentrated in and around the great Rufiji River which attracts a great variety of wildlife activity. This afternoon, head out on a boat safari along the river. You may see pods of hippos, while crocodiles bask on the banks enjoying the golden light of the late afternoon and watch the flame red sunset over the doum palms.

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 5 Depart the Selous for Lazy Lagoon

Today you leave the beauty of the game reserve behind and fly to Lazy Lagoon mainland. From here you'll transfer by boat across the water to Lazy Lagoon Island, your idyllic beach resort for the next four nights.

Overnight: Comfortable Lodge

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 6 Free day on the beach

Lazy Lagoon is a remote island of white sand beaches stretching along a thin strip of land, 70km north of Dar es Salaam on the Indian Ocean coastline. A remote beach destination, it is off the beaten track and therefore quiet and relaxing - the perfect end to a busy safari holiday. Visitors can swim and snorkel or simply relax and enjoy the peace.

Overnight: Comfortable Lodge

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 7 Optional trip to Bagamoyo

Today has been left free for you to relax or explore at your leisure. Perhaps you could take an optional excursion to Bagamoyo on the mainland, the oldest town in Tanzania. Bagamoyo's history has been influenced by Arab and Indian traders, the German colonial government and Christian missionaries and was the major slave trading post in East Africa. Bagamoyo, which means 'lay down your heart' in Swahili, was probably given this name because it was the last place the slaves would stay in Tanzania before being shipped off to foreign lands. Although the slave trade officially ended in 1873, slaves continued to be sold and traded in Bagamoyo through the end of the 19th century. The Holy Ghost fathers established their first mission station in Bagamoyo in 1868, and it was in its chapel that Dr. Livingstone's body was brought from the interior and kept before being shipped back to Europe. Remains of German's colonial buildings as well as those of Arabs are the main attractions in Bagamoyo.

Overnight: Comfortable Lodge

You can also explore the coastline from a kayak where mangrove forests and the island's interior are home to bush babies, suni antelope, duiker and bush pig.

Overnight: Comfortable Lodge

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
