Suitability

We've given each of our tours a comfort rating and a tour pace, walking or cycling grade to give you a general idea about the level of activity on each tour and the standard of accommodation you will be staying in at the end of your day's adventure.

Often you'll stay in different styles of accommodation during your tour; so we make an average rating across the entire tour. For more information on where you'll stay each night, please refer to the day by day tour itinerary.

DAY 1 Local bus to Sarria

On arrival in Santiago you will take a local bus from Santiago to the town of Sarria, changing bus in Lugo. On arrival and time permitting, there will be the opportunity for anyone interested to visit the delightful Benedictine monastery of Samos by taxi (just a short 12km drive away), one of the most important monasteries in Galicia.

Why Book this trip?

The north of Spain is known for its continental climate, with more chance of seasonal extremes and a higher probability of rainfall than the rest of Spain. In Galicia, the Atlantic climate is predominant. Weather is generally very mild during May to September with daytime temperatures reaching the mid 20°C during the day and, depending on altitude, between 10 and 17 degrees at night.

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Walk to Portomarin

Before leaving Sarria you will pick up your Credencial booklet, which will be used to gain 'passport' stamps at various points, and which you'll use to get your certificate at the end. From Sarria we continue on foot through Galicia, traversing a terrain of undulating hills in the most verdant of all Spain's regions. Passing the hamlet of Brea we reach the famous 100km landmark, for so long a magical moment for weary pilgrims. It was here that they could regather their strength, knowing that it was now only another 3-4 days to go to Santiago. Nowadays this waypoint marks the start point for where you have to walk from continuously to Santiago in order to get the 'compostela' certificate. This afternoon we reach Portomarin, once a splendid medieval village, which was relocated by Franco to make way for a dammed lake. Remnants of the town's more prosperous days can still be seen amongst its narrow streets, such as the delightful Romanesque San Pedro church. (Approx. 5 hours walking, 21km, 250m ascent, 360m descent).

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 3 Continue to Lestedo

Today you will start your walk on the Camino de Santiago by crossing part of the dammed lake on a disused railway bridge. The trail continues gradually uphill, passing the 80km mark at Castromaior village, before reaching the last high pass (702m) just before Ligonde. From here, you'll walk through undulating hills, which make way for eucalyptus trees and Cruceiros, the stone crosses so typical for Galicia, before descending gently to your night stop at Lestedo hamlet. (Approx. 5 hours walking, 20 km, 360m ascent, 130m descent).

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4 En route to Melide

Today you will walk through idyllic rural Galicia, first passing through the important pilgrim town of Palais de Rei. The white-washed town hall overlooks the town square, a good place to stop for a break. Leaving the town behind, the route takes you through farmland and rural countryside. You will walk through an oak grove before crossing the provincial border and entering A Coruña. At the town of Fuerlos, you'll cross a medieval bridge with four arches before reaching your stop for the night at Melide. (Approx. 4 and a half hours walking, 19km, 150m ascent, 200m descent).

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 5 Walk to Aruza

Today you will pass many horreos, typical barns of the region that dot this beautiful countryside. You will start to see more signs of reaching Santiago and pass through many pilgrim villages. Finally crossin the River Iso before arriving in Aruza. Aruza is the junction where the Camino Frances (French Way) and Camino del Norte (North Way or Camino Primitivo) meet. (Approx. 3 and a half hours walking, 14km, 150m ascent, 100m descent).

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 6 Continue to Rua

Today you continue the approach to Santiago, passing many pilgrim sites including pilgrim Guillermo Watt's memorial; he died here whilst on the pilgrimage and his shoes can be found in the stone wall. You may also want to stop at the Santa Irene chapel to see some interesting statues of St James before continuing your walk along a country road to the village of Rua. (Approx. 4 and a half hours walking, 18km, 120m ascent, 150m descent).

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7 Final day to Santiago

Today you will complete your pilgrimage and arrive in Santiago de Compostela. You will pass through the village of Lavacolla, where pilgrims would wash and change into their best clothes for the final stretch of the walk. From here you will ascend the final hill before the city to Monte Gozo, this being the point where the pilgrims could finally see the cathedral and the end of their journey in the distance. You are now just 5kms/one hour from Santiago's historic centre and the end of your pilgrimage, sharing the emotion of pilgrims from all over the world. (Approx. 6 hours walking, 23km, 180m ascent).

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 8 Free day in Santiago

Today has been left free to explore the historic and beautiful city of Santiago at your own pace. Visit the magnificent cathedral and appreciate in more depth the stunning architectural diversity of its Romanesque, Gothic and Baroque styles. Alternatively you may prefer to wander the city's narrow streets and visit some of the architectural treasures that are dotted around the city. In the Convento de Santo Domingo de Bonaval you will find a folk museum dedicated to the region of Galicia, whilst the Monasterio de San Martiño Pinario and the Palacio de Gelmirez are just two of the other jewels to see. And, at the end of the day, what better way to relax than with a reviving drink on the Praza das Praterias and watch the world pass by. Alternatively, you could take a trip by bus to Cape Finisterre, the true land's end for medieval pilgrims. Fly home this evening, or maybe spend some extra time in this wonderful city - the choice is yours, and we can arrange it for you!

Preparing for your Trip

Climate

Spain

Overall, spring, early summer and autumn are ideal times for a Spanish trip - though the weather varies enormously from region to region. The high central plains suffer from fierce extremes, stiflingly hot in summer, bitterly cold and swept by freezing winds in winter. The Atlantic coast, in contrast, has a tendency to damp and mist, and a relatively brief, humid summer. The Mediterranean south is warm virtually all year round. Spain's Islands the Canaries and Balaerics experience very mild winters and warm summers making them ideal year round destinations.

Luggage allowance on trip:

Unfortunately it does occasionally happen that luggage does not always reach its destination on the same flight as its owner, or possibly it may be damaged in transit. If you are unlucky enough for this to occur, it is important that you file a PIR (Property Irregularity Report) with the airline before leaving the airport. This is essential when you come to make a claim either against the airline or from your travel insurance company
