DAY 1 Join tour Beijing

Arrive Beijing and check-in at hotel. The rest of the day is free to relax, or perhaps explore something of our local surroundings and acclimatise a little to the enigma that is Beijing. Our hotel in Beijing was established by the Tobacco Monopoly Bureau of Hunan Province and is close to the Temple of Heaven, Taoranting Park and the railway station hotel and is 30 minutes-walk to the Tiananmen Square. All rooms have satellite TV, a safety box and Internet Access. There are a number of restaurants, one of which is known for its Hunan cuisine and serves Chinese and Western style dinners. There is a tea garden serving Chinese and Western drinks, chess and card room and even a foot massage room. Foreign exchange and laundry are also available.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Free in Beijing to visit Tiananmen Square.

Today offers a chance to explore something of a city that has been at the centre of China, politically and culturally, since the days of the great Kublai Khan. You could pay a visit to Tiananmen Square and the Forbidden City, home to the Ming and the Manchu (Qing) emperors for over 500 years. Other options include a visit to the Temple of Heaven, a trip out to the Summer Palace, or a tour of the city's fascinating hutongs (traditional alleys and backstreets) by rickshaw.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 3 Drive to the Great Wall at Mutianyu and fly kites by the wall or the Olympic stadium. Overnight train to Xian

This morning we drive by private bus to Mutianyu, some 125 kilometres to the north-east of the city, to pay a visit to China's famous Great Wall. One of the country's most iconic symbols, the Great Wall stretches from the China Sea to the Gobi desert, a journey of over 5,000 kilometres. The section we visit today is one of the best preserved parts of the wall, built over 400 years ago during the Ming dynasty. Over 10 kilometres in length, this magnificent structure crosses five mountain passes and features two beacon towers and nearly 70 watchtowers. We then fly kites either by the Great Wall or the square by the Birds Nets stadium, the main venue of the Beijing Olympic Games. Try out this ancient Chinese tradition as you battle with the wind to reach for the sky. This evening we then take the overnight train to Xian.

Overnight: Simple Overnight Train

DAY 4 Free day to explore the Shaanxi National Museum or the Muslim Quarter

We arrive in Xian early this morning and walk the short distance to our hotel in time for breakfast. The rest of the day is then free to make the most of China's old imperial capital. You might like to pay a visit to the Big Wild Goose Pagoda, a 64 metre high structure that offers some superb views out across the city. Another possibility is a visit to the Shaanxi National Museum. Alternatively, the network of alleys that make up the city's Muslim Quarter provide an excellent destination for a day of exploring. The hotel in Xian offers good sized rooms with en-suite facilities and internet connection, TV, air-conditioning and a tea/coffee maker. Hotel facilities include a restaurant, fitness/health centre, sauna, laundry service, safety deposit boxes and Wi-Fi. The hotel is located close to the railway station with the bus for the Terracotta Warriors leaving from across the road.

Overnight: Simple Hotel

DAY 5 Visit the Terracotta Warriors and Workshop and Calligraphy Class

Today we visit one of China's most famous sights, the Terracotta Army of Emperor Qin Shi Huangdi. Travelling by private bus, we spend three to four hours exploring this incredible site, visiting the three excavated pits that hold, literally, thousands of life-sized archers, soldiers and charioteers. Buried here to guard the tomb of China's first emperor, the Terracotta Army is considered to be one of the greatest archaeological finds of the last century. Before experiencing the site, we visit a workshop close by where we witness the making of smaller versions of the Terracotta figures which gives some idea of the challenge that the Chinese craftsmen had when making the life sizes equivalent. Returning to Xian, we then travel onto the Tang Art Museum where we try our hand at the ancient art of calligraphy which of course is Chinese letter writing - learn how to write your name in this ancient communication style. Returning to Xian by public bus.

Overnight: Simple Hotel

DAY 6 Morning flight to Chengdu and visit the Panda Research Centre and the ancient city of Huanglongxi.

A morning flight to Chengdu, the capital of China's Sichuan Province, brings us to a city that once marked the starting point of the old southern Silk Road. Set along the western edge of the Sichuan Basin, Chengdu can trace its ancestry back over 2,500 years and is famed throughout China for its food and its embroidery. The city is also home to the world famous Panda Breeding and Research Centre which lies just on the outskirts of the city. On arrival, we travel directly to the centre to see an animal that has become synonymous with China itself. Home to numerous free roaming Giant Pandas, the ultimate aim of the centre is to reintroduce these rare animals back into the wild in such numbers as to ensure their survival. To that end, the centre has enjoyed an extraordinary level of success with numerous new-born pandas over the past few years. We visit Huanglongxi in the afternoon, which is an ancient town over 1,700 years old. Huanglongxi has been restored to retain its rustic charm, with ancient cobbled streets, temples and houses along its curving alleys. The majority of the buildings in Huanglongxi date back from the Qing Dynasty with ancient temples including Zhenjiang Temple, Chaoyin Temple and Gulong Temple which have all been featured in numerous films as part of exterior scenes of period movies. We then drive to the airport for the flight from Chengdu to Guilin this evening. The hotel has a prime location located close to the train station and city centre. The rooms have a traditional Oriental style design and offers en-suite facilities and internet connection. The restaurant serves a variety of local dishes with a charming café and cocktail lounge to complement the dining facility. There is also a laundry service, safety deposit boxes, salon, fitness centre, sauna and impressive lobby.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7 Fly to Guilin with free afternoon

We then drive to the airport for the flight from Chengdu to Guilin this morning with the rest of the day free to explore. Guilin is China's most picturesque region and it's breathtaking scenery has attracted many visitors (and famous poets and artists!) for thousands of years. The city boasts an active nightlife but you can still catch a glimpse of Guilin's yesteryears in the countryside which continues to be home to many ethnic minority groups.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

DAY 8 Drive to Pingan Village; village walks

The village of Pingan sits perched on the central ridge of the Dragon's Backbone, a visually stunning series of rice terraces that runs along the meandering contours of surrounding hills. Upon arriving at the village, we take a walk around and meet some of the local Zhuang people and see the unique agricultural feat of engineering that has created this remarkable landscape. Today's walk follows the rice terraces and there are a lot of steps along the route, we can take our time to enjoy the views and with plenty of breaks to rest our legs during the three hour adventure. The guesthouse in Pingan is a small family run hotel set in a wooden style building design. There are good views of the local area and over the rice terraces from the balcony. The guesthouse gives a good location to wander around the surrounding area and discover the local village. The rooms are simple but clean with air conditioning, TV and internet access in the lobby.

Overnight: Simple Guesthouse

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 9 Morning walk to Longji Village. Afternoon drive to Yangshou

The Zhuang migrated into this region of China over 5,000 years ago and today represent the largest of the country's minority groups. Skilled in weaving and embroidery, the Zhuang follow a fascinating tradition of beliefs that are deeply rooted in the power of nature. This morning we take a walk for around three hours to another Zhuang village at Longji following a flat path. We then drive on to the small market town of Yangshou late this afternoon. Nestling besides the banks of the Li River, Yangshou lies amongst what many consider to be some of the most scenic landscapes in China. The hotel in Yangshuo has tastefully decorated rooms with air-conditioning and heating, private bathrooms, radio, TV and phone. It is easy walking distance from the centre and close to the famous Western Street and a local food market that opens in the evening. There is a bar and lounge area, shopping arcade and Chinese and Western Restaurants. The hotel also offers laundry service, safe-deposit box and even shoe shine facility. There is a bank next door for currency exchange.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

DAY 10 Morning cooking lesson with optional cycle ride or raft along the Li River

We visit a cooking school in the city where the whole family learn how to prepare a number of traditional Chinese dishes using local produce for our lunch today. The afternoon is free for you to relax and soak up the atmosphere of this beautiful riverside town or you may want to hire bikes and cycle out into the surrounding countryside, climb to the top of 'Moon Hill' for some wonderful views across the open plains and out to the distant mountains or try a rafting trip along the Li River. A wander through the town's local market offers a chance to barter for everything from batiks and silk paintings to Chairman Mao's Little Red Book. If you decide to try bamboo rafting we recommend you are confident swimming 25 metres unaided.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 11 Morning free. Overnight train to Shenzhen

After a free morning in Yangshou we then drive back to Guilin to take an overnight train to Shenzhen, just to the north of Hong Kong. A testament to the resurgence of China as a modern world power, Shenzhen is one of the country's most successful Special Economic Zones. It is also the end of our journey across mainland China.

Overnight: Simple Overnight Train

DAY 12 Cross border into Hong Kong. Free on arrival

On arrival in Shenzhen this morning we need to cross the border into Hong Kong by way of the Lu Wu rail connection. This requires us carrying our own bags across the border, where our local Hong Kong guide will be waiting to take us to our hotel. The rest of the day is then free to relax and enjoy one of Asia's most vibrant cities.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Swimming Pool Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 13 Free in Hong Kong

You are free to take in Kowloon's bustling waterfront today, perhaps taking a trip on the famous Star Ferry to enjoy one of the world's most famous cityscapes from the water. Other options include a ride on Hong Kong's funicular railway to the top of Victoria Peak, where you can enjoy some panoramic views out across the city and the outlying islands. The majority of hotels in China offer check in from 12noon. On days where we will arrive on a sleeper train the Tour Leader will try and arrange an early check in for the group, however this may not be possible. When travelling on sleeper trains we use a combination of a 'hard sleeper' berth (usually on the Shenzhen to Guilin journey), which are berths with 6 beds (3 on each side) and a curtain to separate from the main carriage and 'soft sleeper' berths, which are berths with 4 beds (2 on each side) which would be allocated to the Explore group. Due to the nature of booking train tickets in China we cannot guarantee that the entire group will be in the same carriage and you may be sharing your berth with non-Explore passengers or both sexes.

Preparing for your Trip

Climate

China

China has primarily a temperate climate, with a wide spectrum of extremes due to its huge area. Summer months are hot and rainy though in the south the climate is tropical and we can experience rain at any time of the year, often falling in sharp tropical rainstorms which are heavy but short lived. Winter is colder and drier, temperatures in Beijing can be as low as -12c.

Hong Kong

Hong Kong enjoys more of a sub-tropical climate and the winter months tend to produce temperatures in the high teens, with January being more susceptible to cloud cover, with occasional rain and cold fronts.

Clothing

Lightweight clothing is needed all year round with some warmer clothes for the cooler evenings. Casual clothes are the most practical. You may also wish to bring some lightweight rainwear or an umbrella.

Equipment

Torch, insect repellent, sunglasses, sun cream and a water bottle. A Mandarin phrase book may also be helpful.

Footwear

Comfortable walking shoes, trainers and sandals

Luggage: On Tour

It is essential that your baggage is lockable; the airport authorities insist on this. Please be aware, before boarding a flight in China that the Chinese authorities will only allow glass bottles onto aircraft if they have been checked in as main luggage. Any glass bottles in the hand luggage may be confiscated. Please bring a shoulder bag large enough to carry clothing and toiletries for the nightstop in Pingan as we will not bring our main luggage with us for the night.
