DAY 1 Join tour Beijing

Arrive in Beijing and check-in to the hotel.

Overnight: Simple Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Discover the sights of Beijing; including the Forbidden City

Beijing is the political and cultural centre of this vast country. Today you will have free time where you can choose to do a number of things. You may wish to wander across Tiananmen Square into the iconic Forbidden City, the one-time home of the Ming and the Manchu (Qing) emperors and the largest and best preserved collection of ancient buildings in the whole of China. Alternatively you could visit the Temple of Heaven or just walk through the Hutongs in the area.

Overnight: Simple Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 3 Walk the Great Wall before catching a sleeper train to Xian

It's a busy day today as we drive out of the city to Mutianyu to visit the Great Wall. Its construction commenced in the 3rd century BC by Shi Huangdi, thousands of conscripted workers laboured on it and many lie buried in its brick and stone ramparts. Returning to Beijing we are scheduled to leave the city this evening on the sleeper train. The main railway station is a hive of activity.

Overnight: Simple Overnight Train

 Included Meals: None

DAY 4 In Xian; Visit the Old Ming Dynasty City Wall

We arrive in Xian in time for breakfast. We make the short journey from the train station on foot. Our stay in Xian reveals the extraordinary continuity of Chinese civilisation. Xian (Changan) served 11 dynasties and was the very starting point of the Silk Road between Central Asia and Europe. Its ancient monuments include the Great Mosque, a wonderful 15th century working mosque within the old muslim Hui District. There is also the option to visit the Big Wild Goose Pagoda, a 7-storey high structure with a superb overview of the city.

Overnight: Simple Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 5 Explore the Terracotta Army; overnight train to Suzhou

Today we take the public bus and visit one of the highlights of any visit to China - the magnificent Terracotta Warriors and Horses who guard the Qin Shi Huangdi Tomb. There are literally thousands of lifesize warriors, dating from 200BC. This dramatic find of the 1970s is considered one of the greatest archaeological discoveries of the century. We should have time to stop at the on-site factory to see how the warriors are made today. In the early evening we take the overnight sleeper train to Suzhou.

Overnight: Simple Overnight Train

 Included Meals: None

DAY 6 Optional boat ride along Suzhou's canal's

Suzhou sits astride the Grand Canal which was completed in 610AD and linking the Yellow River with the Yangtze, and Beijing with Hangzhou, the 1,800 km Grand Canal was a magnificent engineering feat. Over the centuries it has transported food north from the fertile lands in the south. Over 2,500 years old, Suzhou is sometimes called the 'Venice of the Orient' with a series of bridges, canals and ancient buildings. But a little of Suzhou's special magic lies in its famous gardens, perhaps the most beautiful in all China. This afternoon we have time to explore this lovely old town with the option to take boat ride on the pretty canals or visit to the large 'Humble Administrator's Garden' which has streams, ponds and beautifully decorated pavilions scattered throughout. Here water reflects land and provides a fresh tableau at every turn.

Overnight: Simple Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 7 Enjoy the beautiful garden in Suzhou; bullet train to Shanghai

We continue our exploration of the town. There is time to make an optional visit to the 'Lingering Garden' which features a man-made mountain and lake, garden courts and elegant buildings, a real contrast to the garden from yesterday. Early afternoon we catch the train to Shanghai. Shanghai is one of Asia's most vibrant and dynamic cities. It began as a fishing village in the 11th century, but after the end of the first opium war and of the five newly opened treaty ports Shanghai soon became the most cosmopolitan city, with Asian, Russian, European and Jewish influences. Here were cabarets and ballrooms, fine shops and satirical newspapers, and with such style and influence Shanghai was dubbed the 'Paris of the Orient'. Today its elegant past is still noticeable as you walk down 'the Bund'.

Overnight: Simple Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 8 Optional visit to the Oriental Pearl TV and Radio Tower

Time in Shanghai is left free for your own exploration. You may wish to visit the 16th century Yu Yuan Gardens or stroll along the Bund.

Overnight: Simple Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 9 Tour ends in Shanghai

Our tour ends this morning.

 Included Meals: None

Accommodation and Meals

Accommodation Notes

During the tour we spend two nights on overnight sleeper trains. These are a great way of travelling between cities without losing precious time in the day for exploring with the added bonus that we will get to meet locals as we travel.

We use cabins with six bunk beds, three on either side. There are curtains at the end of the cabin for privacy. There is space in each cabin for bags, under the bottom bunk. We suggest a soft duffel style bag or a rucksack as they offer more flexibility than a suitcase. There are toilets in each train carriage, usually Asian style squat toilets although some trains do now have a western style toilet as well. We are likely to be sharing our cabins with non Explore travellers giving us plenty of time to learn about local life during the journey.

The majority of hotels in China offer check in from 12noon. On days where we will arrive on a sleeper train the Tour Leader will try and arrange an early check in for the group, however this may not be possible.

Please be aware that the beds in China are often quite firm and may take a few nights for you to get used to.
