DAY 2 Cross Tiananmen Square and visit the Forbidden City

This morning we'll explore the Chinese capital, the political and cultural centre of the country. Beijing has mostly been the capital since the days of Kublai Khan, and is a more dominant factor in people's lives today than ever before. All clocks in China are set by Beijing time. Today we visit the Forbidden City, the one-time home of the Ming and the Manchu (Qing) emperors, a treasure trove of eastern wares. The recent history of China is similar to that of North Korea in that the Chinese followed the Communist ideology of a freedom fighter who became the dominant leader. The influence of Mao in China remains strong today, with his imposing portrait located above the southern gate of the Forbidden City, overlooking Tiananmen Square. There is free time this afternoon for personal exploration of this amazing city.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 3 Fly to Pyongyang

We take the short flight from Beijing to Pyongyang. Pyongyang is the showpiece of North Korea, and is unique. We are now in a country where every aspect of life is dominated by the State and the ideology of Kim Il Sung, the Great Leader. To live in Pyongyang is considered an honour to the citizens of North Korea, who require permits to enter, or leave the city. Our tour starts with the obligatory visit to the Mansudae Monument, a huge bronze tribute to Kim Il Sung, where flowers are laid as a mark of respect by all who visit. We then take the Metro, with its immaculate marble clad stations. Here kitsch chandeliers light enormous mosaics depicting heroic citizens from all walks of life stretching the length of the platforms on both sides. We travel to the impressive Arch of Triumph before returning to our hotel. When in North Korea the order of sightseeing may be changed once in the country. Whilst in North Korea we will try and interact with locals wherever possible, you may wish to bring some photos of your home, hometown or even recent holidays as they are a great way of making a connection with the people we meet during the tour.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 4 Drive to Kaesong and visit the DMZ

We depart Pyongyang along the deserted roads to reach the ancient capital at Kaesong where we visit the twin tombs of King Kongmin and his wife who ruled Korea in the 14th century. Kaesong was once the most important city on the peninsula being the first unified capital, and remaining so for nearly 400 years. It remained in South Korea at the outbreak of hostilities of the 1950-3 war and therefore was protected from the bombing that destroyed almost every ancient monument in the North. We drive south to Panmunjon, which is the last frontier in the Cold War. Lying along the 38th Parallel this is one of the most tense and fortified borders in the world, where over a million soldiers are on constant guard. Our Military guide shows us around areas where the armistice agreement was signed in 1953 and talks freely of the North Korean perspective of the current situation. This almost serene setting, where soldiers from the North and South stand almost side by side, is an acute reminder of the tragic division of the peninsula. At our local style hotel, we sleep in the traditional manner on a mattress on a heated floor.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 5 Return to Pyongyang and continue site seeing

Retracing our footsteps along the near empty road we return to Pyongyang. A typical visit this afternoon will include an ascent of the 170m high Juche Tower, a symbol of the country's guiding ideology, Juche. This is based on a self reliance and the principle that each individual is master of their own destiny, and has held the country together for 50 years, outliving many other forms of communism.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 6 In Pyongyang

We begin this morning with a visit to the captured US spy ship Pueblo. In the afternoon a short drive takes us to Manyongdae – the birth place of Kim Il Sung, which is visited by hundreds of Koreans every day to see where the first thoughts of liberation were founded. Later we drive to Moranbong Park where there is the opportunity to take a stroll in the park and the unique opportunity to mix with the locals enjoying their day off.

DAY 7 Drive across the country to Lake Suijung

Today's drive sees us cross the breadth of the country to the port city of Wonsan. After lunch and a visit to a co-operative farm we continue south to Lake Suijung. We stay in a small motel on the edge of the lake. The mud of Lake Suijung is reputed to have great medicinal properties - there's the opportunity to test this with an optional mud bath and massage.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 8 Explore the Kumgang Mountains

Leaving our idyllic location we head into the heart of the Kumgang mountains, into an area only recently opened up to tourism in North Korea. Although geographically in the north, this region was leased from the government by the South Korean Hyundai corporation and was visited by tourists from the south. With the abrupt end of this arrangement, once again this destination is only accessible to tourists from the north. There is the opportunity for some gentle walks in the region before heading back to Wonsan where we spend the night.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 9 Visit to the Father Liberation War museum

Leaving Wonsan we return to Pyongyang. The Father Liberation War museum (opened in 1953) is not to be missed; its fascinating to hear the DRPK's side of the story. Exhibits include a massive collection of war memorabilia, a chilling reminder of the brutality of the 'forgotten war'. We'll also take a walk in the sculpture park of monuments to the war, which was unveiled in 1993 to mark the 40th anniversary of its end. The main statue is titled 'Victory' and is an impressive sculpture of a Korean soldier and a red flag.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 10 Overnight train to Beijing

This morning we take the train from Pyongyang through the countryside to the border town of Sinuiju on the banks of the Yalu River. The Yalu River bridge was bombed by the Americans during the Korean war and provides a stark reminder of the turbulent history of the Korean peninsula. Across the river at Dandong, Chinese carriages are joined to the train and we journey on through the night to Beijing.

Overnight: Basic Overnight Train

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 11 In Beijing

We arrive back in the Chinese capital this morning. The rest of the day is left free to explore or perhaps make some last minute purchases in the bustling stores and markets.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

China

China has primarily a temperate climate, with a wide spectrum of extremes due to its huge area. Summer months are hot and rainy though in the south the climate is tropical and we can experience rain at any time of the year, often falling in sharp tropical rainstorms which are heavy but short lived. Winter is colder and drier, temperatures in Beijing can be as low as -12c.

North Korea

North Korea has a temperate climate with distinct seasonal changes. Early Spring is sunny but chilly so bring a warm coat and under clothes. In late Spring light clothing in the day and warm clothing at night is needed. Summer (June to August) is warm weather day and night but bring light raincoat. Autumn has marked variations between day and night so be prepared. Winter (December to February) has clear skies not much snow but biting cold. Additional information and climate charts can be accessed at <http://www.explore.co.uk/weather>. Seasonal weather patterns can be unpredictable. Up-to-date information on the weather worldwide can be found by following the BBC weather link on this page.

Clothing

Bring some warmer clothing for cooler evenings, lighter clothing for the day. Please note that smart attire is needed for the visit to Kim Il Sung's mausoleum. Men are required to wear a shirt and tie. On rare occasions foreigners are allowed to visit the Memorial Palace; for this, shirt and tie for men and dress or skirt for women are required.
