Historical Tour and Cruise on the Turkish Coast

This trip combines the Greco-Roman sites of South West Turkey with a week-long cruise along the Aegean Coast. First we visit the famous ruins of Ephesus and the white marble city of Aphrodisias. We also explore the Carian city of Alinda and the old Ionian sites of Didyma, Miletus and Priene. In Pamukkale we enjoy a dip in the hot mineral waters of the ancient spa and discover the white travertine's known as the 'frozen waterfall'. We also tour the city of Caunus and unwind on the white sands of Iztuzu beach. At the end of our first week we board our traditional wooden gulet in the old seaport town of Fethiye. We cruise to the small fishing village of Kalkan and explore the Island of Kekova. We also sail over the submerged city of Simena - its sunken streets and buildings visible in the clear waters. Along the way we visit the harbour town of Kas, where we relax in street cafes and enjoy delicious Turkish cuisine.

DAY 1 Join tour Dalyan

Arrive Dalyan and check-in at hotel. Once a small fishing village on the edge of the Dalyan River, Dalyan has grown into a small town. It is famous for its meandering reed bed waterways that lead to the beautiful golden sand Iztuzu Beach, and for Lycian rock tombs that can be viewed in the cliffs above the town. The ancient city of Caunus is also a short walk away.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Excursion to Caunus

This morning we take a small boat through reed beds to the ruins of Caunus, an important city circa 400 BC. Here, we can clamber up to the higher points of the Citadel from where there are fine panoramic views across the reed beds to the distant Aegean. We continue by boat to Iztuzu Beach, perhaps the best beach in all Turkey, for an afternoon of relaxation before returning to Dalyan.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 3 Drive to Milas via Alinda

On our way to Milas we stop at the ruins of Alinda, a place where time stopped at the close of antiquity and now seems to be part of a lost landscape. Olive trees have pushed through the ground invading the ancient theatre where cows graze freely in this surreal setting. Situated on a rocky acropolis close to the village of Karpuzlu, this was Ada's capital and she built a wall around her city in circa 344 BC. She welcomed Alexander the Great who in turn rewarded her with the governorship of the Carian region. We continue to Milas and check into our hotel.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

DAY 4 Drive via Didyma, Miletus and Priene to Selcuk

Heading north we drive first to Didyma, whose Temple of Apollo held an oracle as important as the one at Delphi, in Greece. Today the massive scale of the fallen columns and the wealth of the intricate carvings bear testimony to the power of the ancient cult of Apollo. Then to Miletus, whose 15,000 seat theatre is evidence of the city's importance in Greek and Roman times, before its harbour silted up and gradually the city was abandoned. Finally we come to the smaller and more picturesque site of Priene, perched on a hillside overlooking the Menderes (ancient 'Meander') valley. As this Ionian city was not built on by the Romans, archaeologists have been left with a vivid picture of the scale and layout of a typical city of the 4th century BC. We continue to Selcuk, with its prominent Byzantine fortress and remains of the huge Temple of Artemis, once considered to be one of the seven wonders of the Ancient World, but sadly now totally destroyed.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 5 Visit Ephesus

This morning we have arranged a visit to the great Greco-Roman city of Ephesus, once visited by Mark Anthony and Cleopatra, and also by the evangelist St. Paul (which inspired the Epistle to the Ephesians). This famous old Asia Minor seaport reached its peak in the 2nd century AD and declined after the 7th century. One of the main cultural and economic centres of the Old World, it once boasted excellent gymnasias and a stadium seating 70,000 spectators. Other highlights include the Baths of Constantine (4th century), the Arcadian Way (where Cleopatra entered from the Harbour), the Marble Avenue (with the 2-storeyed Library of Celsus, one of the most famous reconstructions of a Greco-Roman building in the world), the brothel, the Temple of Hadrian with its beautiful facade, the theatre (a giant with 24,000 seats) and the odeon (a 2000-seat music and poetry centre).

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 6 Drive via Aphrodisias to Pamukkale and Hierapolis

Leaving Selcuk we drive to ancient Aphrodisias, where the goddess of love once bestowed her sensual favours on willing devotees. Here we will have a guided tour of the site and visit the museum before continuing to one of Turkey's most amazing natural wonders, the 'frozen waterfall' of Pamukkale. Situated on a high escarpment, Pamukkale has been an attraction since Roman times. Stalactites of a petrified waterfall cascade from basin to basin, a most spectacular sight. We visit the incredible travertine pools, where you can opt to swim and enjoy the views overlooking the Menderes Valley. Continuing to Hierapolis where the ruins date back to 190 BC and the time of Eumenes II. Earthquakes have rocked the area throughout history and the site was finally abandoned in 1334 following a particularly strong quake.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7 Drive via Minare village and Pinara to Fethiye

Today we continue to Fethiye via the village of Minare where we will stop to have lunch, and Pinara famous for its Roman and Lycian rock tombs with well preserved reliefs of the ancient settlements, set high up in the hills.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 8 Board Gulet

Today is the end of our 'Aegean Sites' tour. Our 'Blue Cruise' tour starts at Fethiye harbour where we board our gulet and meet the crew. Fethiye is a market town that can trace its history back to the ancient Lycian city of Telmessos built around the harbour in the 5th or 6th Century B.C. Reminders of the town's past include Lycian rock tombs on the hillside and a Hellenistic theatre. If circumstances allow we leave Fethiye harbour in the late afternoon and head for a local bay for dinner and to overnight.

Overnight: Simple Boat

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 9 To Kalkan

We sail this morning to the harbour of Kalkan, a small fishing village built into the steep slopes of the seacliff. Kalkan offers a perfect chance to explore an old village and harbour front. From here there is the chance of an optional excursion to see the ancient cities of Xanthos and Patara. Xanthos was the capital of ancient Lycia, captured by Brutus in 43 BC, but only after the menfolk had killed all their women and children to save them from falling into Roman hands. Saklikent Gorge, situated high in the mountains above Fethiye was created by icy cold water cutting through the mountains over thousands of years. A natural wonder, the resulting canyon is 300 metres deep and 18 km long. Saklikent in Turkish means 'Hidden City'. The walls are so high they cut out most of the sunlight and the fresh spring waters that flow through are freezing cold! A great refuge on a hot summer day.

Overnight: Simple Boat

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 10 To Kekova

Sailing eastwards, we reach the island of Kekova, and several ruined cities, including Simena. Picturesque, partly submerged streets and buildings are visible in the crystal clear waters. Lycian sarcophagi (tombs) lie on the harbour bottom at Simena. Further up the hillside is Simena castle set in beautiful surroundings. We can take a walk up to explore its tiny theatre, hollowed out of the rock, and the surrounding medieval walls and tombs.

Overnight: Simple Boat

DAY 11 To Cayagzi

Sailing eastwards, we reach Cayagzi harbour. We recommend a side trip to Arycanda, one of southern Turkey's most dramatic sites, with a magnificent setting on the slopes of the Taurus mountains. The ruins are extensive, with a city stadium, large and small theatres, aqueducts and public baths. On our return, we will moor in Camlica cove, another peaceful and blissful spot in the region.

Overnight: Simple Boat

DAY 12 To Kas via Ucagiz

Today we start sailing west to Ucagiz village. This morning we highly recommend doing a sea kayaking trip at Kekova. Here, submerged streets and buildings are visible in the crystal waters. Lycian sarcophagi (tombs) lie in the harbour bottom at Simena. This afternoon we continue sailing west to the harbour of Kas. This picturesque coastal town is one of the most beautiful of the Turkish riviera, backed by steep cliffs covered with dense green forest. You'll have time to enjoy soaking up the atmosphere at one of the many lively cafes near the picturesque harbour.

Overnight: Simple Boat

DAY 13 To Soguksu Cove

We sail from Kas to Soguksu Cove then Gemiler island. In the afternoon, we will have an opportunity to land on Gemiler Island where we visit the extensive ruins dedicated to Father Christmas. In the early ages of Christianity, the island was an important shelter for the pilgrims on the way to Jerusalem. The top of the island offers superb views over the lovely Mediterranean coast.

Overnight: Simple Boat

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 14 Sail to Tarzan Bay

As we sail to Tarzan bay getting close to Fethiye, we will admire the wonderful views of turquoise seas. A last chance to relax and unwind before the tour ends.

Overnight: Simple Boat

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 15 Sail to Fethiye where tour ends

Our tour ends today in Fethiye harbour. * Gulet itinerary may vary due to local conditions

Preparing for your Tour

Climate

Turkey

Evenings and early mornings can be cool in the early and late season (before mid May and after early October). Summers are hot and dry with refreshing sea breezes. It is often cooler on higher ground and in the mountains and can be cold at night, even in the summer. Seasonal weather patterns can be unpredictable. Up to date information on the weather worldwide can be found by following the BBC weather link on this page.

Clothing

The long Turkish summer can be hot, though much of the Mediterranean coastline is freshened by sea breezes. A warmer sweater or light fleece and long trousers are advisable for the evenings in early and late season. Dress on the gulet is informal.

Equipment

We recommend a torch, water bottle, mosquito repellent, sunglasses, daysac and plenty of high factor suncream. For those who are keen snorkellers, we also recommend bringing a mask and snorkel.

Note: Qualified scuba divers wishing to dive should bring their diving certification and log book.

Footwear

Trainers or comfortable walking shoes are required for exploring some of the ancient sites. Bring sandals for general wear. Footwear is generally not worn on the boat. A pair of old or plastic shoes is useful for walking on rocks and wet beach landings.

Luggage: On Tour

One main piece of baggage and daypack. Space is limited in the gulet cabins so luggage should be kept to a minimum. A soft holdall is recommended rather than a hard suitcase.

Luggage allowance on tour: 20kg
