A Tour Leader is an integral part of any Explore tour and your tour will be led by one of our experienced tour leaders who have been handpicked and expertly trained. We believe that our Tour Leaders are the key to the success of our tours; they are passionate travellers who are bursting with first-hand local knowledge which they love to share. DAY 1 Join tour Tunis

We start our tour in Tunis, the modern bustling capital of Tunisia. Depending on the schedule of your flights, you might be able to explore the city independently, before meeting the group and the Tour Leader at the hotel.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Rooms Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 In Tunis; Visit the Bardo Museum

Despite being a dynamic city, Tunis still retains its distinctive Arab flavour with a colourful Souk crammed with exotica from hubble bubble pipes to baklava. Our morning tour will take us on foot around the Medina with its concentration of streets and souks in the heart of the old city. In the afternoon, we take local transport to visit the Bardo Museum, housed in an old palace. It is an excellent National museum brimming with treasures of Tunisian history dominated by the Punic, Roman and Christian periods. It is said to house one of the best collections of Roman/Byzantine mosaics.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Single Rooms Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 3 Visit Carthage; drive to Kairouan

We take a short drive to visit ancient Carthage. Founded around 1000 BC by the Phoenician Queen Dido, Carthage grew to be the most important and powerful trading centre on the Mediterranean and in the known world. The mighty fleet of hundreds of armed ships was an efficient deterrent against invaders for many centuries. Its geographical situation as the gateway to Africa (today only six hours by boat from Sicily), meant that it was a crucial strategic post which the Romans fought hard to attain. After the 3rd and final Punic war the Romans sacked Carthage in 146 BC, destroyed much of the old town and set about constructing the Pro-Consular capital of Africa from the debris. Today many of the ruins date from the Roman period but we'll also see the two ancient Punic harbours, once the very foundation of Carthaginian prosperity. We drive to Kairouan this afternoon, the holiest city in Tunisia which retains a strong spiritual feel. It is also the birthplace of great poets and doctors of religious law, echoing the traditional Islamic link between Art and Faith. In the afternoon we take a sightseeing tour through the Medina. The imposing archway through the walled ramparts leads us into the labyrinth of the medina and covered market. Here traditional crafts such as copper and silver engraving, carpet weaving and saddle making are carried out. This is a good place to stop for a coffee scented with rose water or try a local delicacy 'makroudh'. They are small wheat cakes soaked in honey and stuffed with dates.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Single Rooms Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4 Drive to Sfax via El Djem

This morning we will visit the Great Mosque, the 4th holiest Islamic centre after Mecca, Medina and Jerusalem. Originally constructed in the seventh century, the Mosque has a myriad of columns and arabesque bas-reliefs surrounding an immense marble courtyard. We also visit the Mosque of the Barber, richly decorated with exquisite patterns and carvings. Leaving Tunisia's spiritual centre, we head for Sfax, her economic centre. En route we visit the magnificent amphitheatre in El Djem, second only to that of Rome, which looms unexpectedly out of the plains rich in olive groves. The olives were the wealth of the region and commercialisation of olive oil led to 'Thysdrus' becoming an important and prosperous trading centre for agricultural products. The huge amphitheatre, larger than those at Nimes and Arles, was constructed with stone from quarries over 30 kilometres away! Later we travel on to Tunisia's second city of Sfax. Sfax is certainly the wealthiest and most sophisticated city in the country. The great medina, with its impressive gateway and towering solid walls topped by jagged ramparts, hide a multitude of narrow alleyways leading to the mosque in the centre.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Single Rooms Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 5 Explore the spice market in Gabes and visit Djerba's capital city

Today we drive to Djerba stopping in Gabes en route. The only seaside oasis in the world, Gabes presents unique features combining mountain, sea and desert. After a visit to the spice market, we continue to Mareth before travelling to Djerba by ferry. Situated off the South-East coast of Tunisia in the Gulf of Gabes, Djerba is a Mediterranean island characterised by picturesque villages with white washed houses and outdoor cafes, palm trees and miles of unspoilt sandy beaches. Djerba is also believed to be the island of lotus eaters described in Homer's Odyssey. Today we have the chance to visit the charming capital city of Houmt Souk, famous for its Ottoman era caravanserais and its bustling market.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Single Rooms Available

Swimming Pool Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 6 Visit the troglodyte houses in Matmata

Although Djerba is mainly a Muslim island, a Jewish community established itself on the island during Roman times and still counts approximately 1,000 people. Today we visit El Ghriba, Africa's oldest synagogue, which is visited every year by the Jewish pilgrims who live in Tunisia. We also visit Guellala, famous for its traditional pottery, which was produced here and distributed all over the Sahara. Still today there are approximately 450 artisans in the village and it is possible to visit their workshop with the typical painted local pottery. We then continue to Matmata. This area is one of the most famous sites in Tunisia due to its 'invisible village' first recorded in the 4th century. Camouflaged by the sandy pockmarked landscape and situated within craters, are 50 or so hidden underground dwellings. Home to one of the oldest Berber tribes, many of the caves are still in use today. Circular pits with vertical walls have been dug out of the sandstone and a sunken courtyard created with tunnels cutting into the walls to form caves and rooms. This subterranean home is cool in the summer and warm in the winter. We have the opportunity to experience this unique dwelling style in our 'cave hotel' this evening.

Overnight: Simple Hotel

Included Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 7 To Tozeur via the Chott El Jerid

This morning we cross the Chott-el-Jerid - the largest salt flats in the Sahara - where we may see mirages. We then continue on to Tozeur, the capital of the south. It is a busy market town and baskets made of palm fibres hang from every corner. During your free afternoon you may wish to visit as this is the place to pick up some exotic bargains but you must be sure to barter! Alternatively you may opt to visit the fascinating Dar Cherait Folklore Museum (if open) with displays of treasures from the Arab world and scenes of simple Tunisian life or take a caleche ride (optional).

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Single Rooms Available

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 8 Visit the ancient Roman ruins in Sbeitla

Today we drive to Le Kef (The Rock), stopping at Gafsa en route. We will visit the Roman ruins of Sbeitla, or 'Sufetla', reached through a huge triumphal arch built in 138AD while Antonius Pious was Emperor. All that is known about this town comes from its inscriptions in its walls and stones. The most impressive ruins are those of the Forum. The Forum is entirely surrounded by a well-preserved 70m x 67m wall and contained within are 3 temples dedicated to Jupiter, Juno and Minerva. Ruins of the great baths, churches and two Byzantine fortresses can also be seen. The prosperity of the town was ensured by the production of olives, the staple diet of Rome's legions. Some of the ingenious olive presses can still be seen today, but its history still remains obscure.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Single Rooms Available

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 9 Explore Bulla Regia and Le Kef

This morning we drive to Bulla Regia. This unusual Roman site is distinctive in that villas were built underground to avoid the searing heat. Colourful mosaics are found scattered through the site, their vivid colours having been well-preserved in the cool and shade. We then drive back and take a sightseeing tour around Le Kef (The Rock). The city clings to Jebel Dyr - the largest mountain in the region. From its Kasbah, a beautifully preserved monument constructed by Arabs and rebuilt by the Turks, commanding views over the plains. Some scattered remains date back to the Roman period including those of large baths, cisterns, fortifications and Christian basilicas, as well as a few Arab monuments. It is worth visiting the museum where there is a well presented exhibition on the life of the nomadic tribes whose tents can be sometimes spotted in the surrounding plains. We then continue to Dougga where we stay overnight.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

Single Rooms Available

Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 10 Visit Dougga and transfer to Sidi Bou Said

This morning we visit the magnificent Roman city of Dougga perched on a plateau surrounded by fertile land fed by abundant springs. The capitol, dedicated to Jupiter, Juno and Minerva in 166 AD is arguably the most beautiful Roman monument in North Africa. We'll see the amphitheatre where the 'Comedie Francaise' regularly performs, the square of the twelve winds and even the town brothel! After a long drive, we visit the attractive town of Sidi Bou Said, where scarlet bougainvillea cascades over the walls of the narrow streets, and colourful shops overflow with carpets, pottery and jewellery. Providing fantastic views over the Mediterranean, Sidi Bou Said is a beautiful coastal town situated on a cliff and it is famous for its white and blue architecture, as well as for having inspired many artists who resided here or visited it such as Paul Klee, Louis Moillet and Andre Gide.

11 Visit the ancient sites of Thuburbo Majus, Zaghouan and Oudhna

Today we explore the archaeological sites of Thuburbo Majus, Zaghouan and Oudhna. Arguably one of the most important Roman sites in Tunisia, Thuburbo Majus was originally a Punic town. Founded by Augustus, it was elevated to the status of municipium by Hadrian and to the status of colony by Commodus. The excavations have yet to be completed but have so far revealed the remains of a forum, an amphitheatre, temples, baths, houses, as well as many beautiful mosaics and fragments of a colossal statue of Jupiter. Oudhna is an archeological site situated 30 kilometers south of Tunis on the road leading to Zaghouan. The most impressive buildings are the Capitol, perched on a hill with its fine mosaics and underground Byzantine vaults, and the amphitheater which could seat up to 10,000 people. We finally visit Zaghouan, with its magnificent aqueduct that was used to supply Carthage with fresh water and is still in use today to supply water in the area around Zaghouan. We transfer back to Sidi Bou Said where we overnight.

Cool Earth

Explore are delighted to support Cool Earth to reduce carbon emissions through preventing the illegal deforestation of the South America rainforest. One of the top sources of global carbon emissions, rainforest deforestation equivalent to the USA's annual emissions, it also destroys flora and fauna, sometimes to the point of extinction. It also degrades the lives and communities of the 350 million residents of the rainforest.

Cool Earth prevents the deforestation through its support of local communities as forest guardians and by focussing on areas in immediate danger of deforestation. It has so far protected over 350,000 acres of rainforest, with each acre saving an emission of 260 tons of CO2, as well as protecting rare animals and plants. When you travel on an Explore holiday we make a donation to Cool Earth that exceeds the impact of our customers flights each year. In addition to mitigating emissions, when you travel with Explore, you are helping to protect the source of 20% of the world's fresh water and oxygen, as well as the livelihoods of the 1.6 billion people who are reliant on the rainforest. www.coolearth.org
