Tailormade Thai Family Adventure

Suitability

We've given each of our tours a comfort rating and a tour pace, walking or cycling grade to give you a general idea about the level of activity on each tour and the standard of accommodation you will be staying in at the end of your day's adventure.

Often you'll stay in different styles of accommodation during your tour; so we make an average rating across the entire tour. For more information on where you'll stay each night, please refer to the day by day tour itinerary.

Your trip itinerary

Tour itinerary notes

While our intention is to adhere to the day-by-day itinerary as printed below, a degree of flexibility is built in. Overnight stops may vary from those suggested.

DAY 1 Fly to Thailand

Fly to Bangkok on an overnight flight from the UK.

Why Book this trip?

Although the climate varies within the country, Thailand is a good year round destination. For the bulk of the country the months from November to April offer pleasantly cool, dry conditions making it perfect for travel. On the southern peninsular the climate differs between the east and west coast. East coast beaches receive their warmest temperatures during our summer months, whilst the west coast enjoys their warm, dry conditions during our winter and spring.

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Arrive Bangkok

Arrive in Bangkok, where you will be met and transferred to your hotel. The rest of the day is free to explore, you may wish to explore the vibrant night markets or visit the muay Thai martial arts.

Overnight: Premium Hotel

Swimming Pool Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 3 Bangkok

Today you have a full-day city tour of Thailand's capital; you'll visit the ornate Grand Palace and Temple of the Emerald Buddha, Wat Pho and the huge reclining Buddha, then board your long-tailed boat for a relaxing cruise along the Chao Phrayar River - the perfect way to soak up the flavours, sights and sounds of this bustling Asian city. Late in the afternoon, board your overnight train north.

Overnight: Simple Overnight Train

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 4 Chiang Mai

Arrive this morning in Chiang Mai, the northern capital of Thailand, for a sightseeing tour including Warorose market, where you will find everything from fruit and veg to flowers and handicrafts. Chiang Mai has over 300 temples and you will have the opportunity to visit some of our favourites before visiting Doi Suthep Temple. Built in 1383 and situated at the top of Suthep Mountain it's a 300 step climb to the top, where you may have a chance to chat with the monks or take a blessing.

Overnight: Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 5 Elephant sanctuary

Head out to the Lampang elephant sanctuary. Established in 1969, it is the largest elephant conservation centre in the country and is also host to an elephant hospital, caring for sick and abandoned elephants. You will be able to see elephants bathing and carrying logs and there is also the option to ride one of these amazing animals. Or, how about getting your hands dirty and making some 'elephant paper', using a truly recyclable material - elephant dung?! This afternoon, you have a Thai cookery course, where an expert cook will teach the basics of Thai cookery, be careful not to add too much chili!

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 6 Pai

Today you head into the northern hills to spend the next three days exploring the area of the hilltribes. There are numerous individual tribes, each with its own particular beliefs, way of life and colour of dress. Drive to Pai where your trekking journey begins in the afternoon when you hike to a Red Lahu Village (approximately two and half hours walking), where you spend the night in the local village houses. Meet the shaman, farmers and children from the village. The Lahu form several subgroups which differ in costume, language and traditions.

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 7 White Karen Village

Today's trek of approximately four hours take you to a White Karen village. You stop at Tham Yao cave along the way. This is a vast and pristine cave system located close to the village. The Karen tribe consists of four distinct groups and forms the largest hilltribe in Thailand. The men often wear Western clothes although the women are prolific weavers and are usually colourfully dressed. Karen people are renowned for their handicrafts such as woven baskets, musical instruments and animal bells.

DAY 8 Boat to Mae Hong Son

A two to three hour hike this morning takes you to a Shan Village, where you'll meet the locals and see them going about their daily life. You then transfer to the Pai River and board a bamboo raft and float to Mae Hong Son, where you spend the next two nights. Mae Hong Son is a tranquil spot which lays in a forested valley next to the river, surrounded by mountains – a spectacular setting.

DAY 9 Return to Chiang Mai

Visit the local market this morning, followed by a guided sightseeing tour to include some of the local temples. You will notice a difference to temples previously seen as a few of these are Burmese in design. This afternoon, drive to Chiang Mai, the scenic bus journey will take around five hours.

Only 6 km in length, Koh Samet is home to some of the best beaches in Thailand. Bright, white sands contrast vividly with the clear blue sea that laps the tree-lined shores of this idyllic island. Up until the 1980's Koh Samet was home to a small community of fishermen, when the island became a designated national park. Since then tourist development has taken place, although the island still retains some of its original charm. Our two days on the island leave you free to relax and enjoy this tropical paradise, with the opportunity to do as much, or as little as you want.
