Your trip itinerary

Tour itinerary notes

While our intention is to adhere to the day-by-day itinerary as printed below, a degree of flexibility is built in. Overnight stops may vary from those suggested.

DAY 1 Join trip in Hanoi

Arrive in Hanoi and after checking into the hotel, the rest of the day is free at leisure. You may wish to take a gentle stroll around the beautiful Hoan Kiem Lake, or perhaps negotiate the narrow streets, shops and noodle stands of the Old Quarter.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Discover the sights of Hanoi including the Old Quarter

This morning we set off to discover Vietnam's capital. Hanoi is a multifaceted city offering a wealth of experiences, we find wide tree-lined boulevards with charming colonial buildings and trendy shops in the French Quarter, whilst the Old Quarter offers up a distinctly more Vietnamese experience - narrow streets filled with street-food vendors, craft stalls, and of course Hanoi's most famous form of transport - mopeds! After some time spent discovering the Old Quarter and its various streets, named after the goods sold there (Basket Street, Paper Street, Silk Street) we continue onto the precarious one-pillar Pagoda, before visiting the Presidential Palace. Interestingly, Ho Chi Minh himself, a spartan-living and scholarly man, chose not to live in the Presidential Palace; he preferred instead a simple teak stilt-house specially built for him in the grounds. After finishing our tour we make our way to back to the hotel, where the remainder of the afternoon is at leisure.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 3 Free time in Hanoi, then drive to Halong Bay

We have some free time in Hanoi this morning, you may wish to visit Ho Chi Minh's austere mausoleum, an interesting piece of architecture resembling Lenin's in Moscow, or perhaps dive into one of the city's many noodle bars to sample Vietnam's favourite dish - Pho (a tasty rice noodle soup made with meat, fresh chillies and vegetables) . You could also choose to explore the city via one of its more traditional methods; on a cyclo-rickshaw ride through the narrow streets and lanes of Hanoi. Later this afternoon we head out of the city and onto the coast as we drive to Halong Bay.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 4 Cruise Halong Bay; from Hanoi overnight train to Hué

We head out on a traditional junk boat this morning for a cruise amongst the towering limestone karsts and jade-green waters of Halong Bay. Legend has it that a furious dragon descended down from the mountains to chase out northern invaders, and the action of the mammoth creature diving into the sea caused this remarkable geological seascape. In fact the word Halong literally translates to descending dragon. We have chance to learn the stories and folklore that adds to the mystical atmosphere of the Bay, as well as stopping at a grotto beneath towering cliffs and perhaps visit a beach. We will stop for a fresh seafood lunch before disembarking and returning to a hotel in Hanoi to freshen up before boarding the Reunification Express to Hue. Overnight trains are an enjoyable and efficient way to travel across Vietnam, and you will stay in either 4 berth or 6 berth cabins, dependant on availability. Bedding is provided and toilets are available at either end of each carriage.

Overnight: Simple Overnight Train

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 5 In Hué; visit Imperial city and cruise on the Perfume River

We arrive into the central city this morning, with some time to relax and re-energise before heading out to learn about Hue's fascinating history. We will start with a visit to the Imperial Citadel which was built by the Nguyen dynasty, Vietnam's ruling emperors from the early 1800s to 1945. Much of the citadel has been copied from the Forbidden City in Beijing, and the formal moats and impressive ramparts were thought be constructed by some 20,000 men. Although most of the inner part of the city was totally destroyed during the month-long Tet Offensive in 1968, the vast outer walls and the west wing remain an eloquent reminder of the palace's former glory. We then make our way to the Perfume River, cruising down the river to the towering seven storied Thien Mu Pagoda.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

Swimming Pool Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 6 Scenic drive over Hai Van Pass to Hoi An; explore the old town on foot

This morning we continue south, this time by road as we enjoy a scenic drive across the spectacular Col des Nuages, otherwise known as the Hai Van Pass. This winding mountain road passes scenes of thatched wooden houses and lime-green rice paddies as it snakes its way across the mountains before we catch our first glimpse of panoramic sea views. We stop at the nearby five peaks of the Marble Mountains, said to represent the five elements of water, wood, fire, gold and earth. Naturally formed grottoes have been transformed into heavily carved Buddhist sanctuaries here. A short distance from the mountains we find the white sands of My Khe

Beach (nicknamed China Beach by American troops)- an ideal spot for a brief rest before reaching our destination - the UNESCO World Heritage town of Hoi An. This afternoon we have planned an orientation walk of this charming merchant town, taking in the wonderful architecture of the Japanese Bridge, as well as visiting some of the Chinese temples and meeting halls in the Old Town.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

Swimming Pool Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 7 Free day to explore Hoi An; optional visit to My Lai

The historic, merchant town of Hoi An had become one of the busiest international trading ports of Southeast Asia by the 17th and 18th centuries. First colonised by the Portuguese in the 16th century, it still retains its old world charm today, with many of its old buildings superbly preserved. The day is free to explore at leisure. There are many shops, bars and restaurants in this charming town and it is a great place to buy souvenirs, have clothing tailored or simply watch the world go by in a riverside café. You may wish to take an optional excursion out to the site of the My Lai village massacre memorial. The massacre was a significant turning point in the American War and the horrific story is told through a very emotive photographic exhibition.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

Swimming Pool Available

DAY 8 Fly to Ho Chi Minh City; Afternoon walking tour

This morning we transfer to Danang, where we take our flight to the south of Vietnam, into Ho Chi Minh City. Heavily bombed during the Vietnam war, Saigon (as it is still often referred to by locals) displays a curious mix of old and new, with French colonial buildings and traditional Vietnamese architecture vying for space with gleaming new skyscrapers. We plan to visit some of these buildings this afternoon, including the beautiful Notre Dame Cathedral and GPO office, as well as some of the old French Colonial hotels such as The Rex. We will also have the chance to visit the graphic War Remnants Museum, offering up a very different side of the story compared to Hollywood's depiction of the Vietnam War.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 9 Full day exploring the Mekong Delta by boat, trishaws and on foot.

Today we leave city behind as we drive into the myriad of waterways that make up the Mekong Delta. Offering a rich and fertile plateau upon which to farm, the Mekong Delta is hubbub of activity, with farmers exploiting its lush agricultural properties, and fisherman catching the Mekong's plentiful supply of freshwater fish. We plan to visit a floating market in the town of My Tho, a wonderful experience where traders offer their fresh produce of exotic fruits, vegetables and fish from a variety of sampans (small Chinese wooden boats) placed along the river. We take a ferry to a nearby village which we explore by trishaws, and later we board sampans to cruise along the narrow, palm-tree lined canals that run off from the main veins of the Delta. Finally we plan to visit a local family-run business based around produce from the humble coconut, before driving back to Ho Chi Minh City late in the afternoon.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 10 Trip ends in Ho Chi Minh City

Trip ends in Ho Chi Minh City after breakfast.

Preparing for your Trip

Climate

Vietnam

As Vietnam is a long, narrow country from north to south climate conditions vary considerably. The climate can be divided into three distinct patterns between the north, central and south regions. The climate in the north is generally humid and subtropical, although the winter months from November to March can be colder with temperatures from 10 - 15 degrees. Summer months, May to September can be quite hot with temperatures from 30 - 35 degrees. Meanwhile south Vietnam enjoys a tropical climate all year round, with little variation throughout the year (around 27 - 32 degrees), however May to November is the rainy season when short, heavy downpours are quite frequent. Central Vietnam lies somewhere in between. The coastal strip is usually dry and hotter from April to October while November to March is wetter and cooler. A light rain jacket and small umbrella are recommended year round.

Clothing

From December through to February warmer clothing is needed for the North. Days are hot and humid. Lightweight rainwear essential at all times. The northern region is cold at night during the winter.

Equipment

Even though bed linen is provided on the train journey, you may want to bring your own sleeping sheet (it can be purchased in Hanoi); torch, and don't forget mosquito repellent (no need for a mosquito net as when necessary, it is provided).

Footwear

Comfortable shoes, trainers and sandals.
