Angel Falls and Orinoco

Experience the diversity of little-known Venezuela as we travel to some of the most remote regions of the country. We visit native Indians in the Orinoco Delta; ride in motorised canoes along jungle-lined rivers to Angel Falls and track wildlife in Los Llanos Wetlands.

Suitability

We've given each of our tours a comfort rating and a tour pace, walking or cycling grade to give you a general idea about the level of activity on each tour and the standard of accommodation you will be staying in at the end of your day's adventure.

Often you'll stay in different styles of accommodation during your tour; so we make an average rating across the entire tour. For more information on where you'll stay each night, please refer to the day by day tour itinerary.

Tour Comfort: Simple

These are often small, family run establishments or campsites which provide a no-frills experience with adequate amenities and service standards. Sleeping arrangements are simple, typically with en suite facilities.

Tour Style: Classic

Packed with adventure, these tours offer inspiring destinations and authentic travel experiences at a reasonable price. Using all kinds of transport and accommodation, we'll take you off the beaten track to discover the true heart of the people and places you visit.

Tour Pace: Moderate

These moderately paced tours provide some busy days with plenty of experiences to enjoy, as well as time to relax along the way.

Your tour itinerary

Tour itinerary notes

While our intention is to adhere to the day-by-day itinerary as printed below, a degree of flexibility is built in. Overnight stops may vary from those suggested.

DAY 1 Join tour Caracas

Arrive in Caracas and check-in to hotel.

Overnight: Standard Hotel
Single Room Available

 Included Meals: None

DAY 2 Fly to Maturin; drive to San Jose de Buja and boat to Camp Morichal Largo

We take a flight eastwards along the rugged Caribbean coastline before flying inland across the plains to Maturin, the capital of Monagas state and an important commercial centre. From here we descend to the great plain of Monagas and then head towards a small port, San Jose de Buja, on the banks of the Morichal Largo River. Here we board the river boat that will take us into the maze of creeks and channels that form the delta of the Orinoco River. As we travel we see a variety of birds and perhaps even dolphins; there is also the chance of seeing the rare manatee. Tonight we stay in a comfortable rustic camp beds or hammocks.

Overnight: Basic Camping

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DAY 3 In the Orinoco Delta

This morning we take an early boat journey into the misty silence of the tranquil delta at dawn, hoping to catch a glimpse of further fauna before breakfast. After breakfast we will take an excursion to visit a Warao Indian community, try our hand at pirhana fishing and explore the maze of channels in the delta. The name Warao comes from War-aroa, meaning 'people of the canoes' and even the youngest children are able to swim and paddle canoes almost as soon as they can walk. Dugout canoes, which form the basic mode of transport in the delta, vary from two to ten meters in length and are used both for fishing and for going to the clearings in the jungle cultivated by the villagers. The Warao's proximity to nature is reflected in the excellence of their delicate basket-work and hand-woven hammocks of moriche palm, which can be purchased locally.

Overnight: Basic Camping

DAY 4 Return to San Jose de Buja; drive to Ciudad Bolivar

Returning to Buja, we then continue by road and cross the mighty Orinoco River near Puerto Ordaz, a large industrial centre, important to the Venezuelan economy because of the processing of bauxite into aluminium and iron ore into steel. We continue to Ciudad Bolivar, arriving in the late afternoon.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

DAY 5 Fly to Kavac

From Ciudad Bolivar on the Orinoco, we fly south to the Pemón Indian settlement of Kavac in the Kamarata valley. Here we enjoy the breath taking wilderness and prepare for our exciting river trip. We fly over the vast bulk of Auyantepui (the Devil's Mountain) and, weather permitting, hope to see Angel Falls from the air. This is included in the dry season and optional in the wet season. On arrival at Kavac there may be the opportunity to visit Kavac canyon (optional).

Overnight: Basic Camping

DAY 6 Motorised canoe to Iwana Meru en route to Angel Falls

This morning we have some free time with the possibility of visiting an Inidan plantation. We then board our motorised canoes and begin our exciting journey to Angel Falls.

DAY 7 Motorised canoe to Angel Falls

For the next three days we make our way round the imposing flat-topped bulk of Auyan-Tepui by river - a journey relatively few people have experienced. Our skilled Indian boatmen guide their 10m craft through the rapids and whirlpools of the river, whilst all around is virgin forest where brightly plumed birds break the eerie silence with their strident calls. During our river journey we stay in Spartan accommodation, sleeping in hammocks with mosquito nets, so be prepared to rough it a bit - the experience is well worth it. We will take a hike to Alexander Laime's look out. The walk is through (light) jungle on marked trails climbing about 450m altitude, sturdy footwear recommended as the trail is quite steep in places. In the wet season, when there is enough water, it is possible to reach a point from which we can hike to the base of the Angel Falls. Discovered only in 1933 by the pilot-adventurer Jimmy Angel who was searching for gold, the falls are a spectacle of extraordinary beauty as they leap some 975m off the top of the mesa and plunge to the foot of the gorge. The plummeting water vaporises in mid-air forming a glistening white spray that collects in a pool below. This breath-taking cataract is one of the most amazing sights on the American continent.

Overnight: Basic Camping

DAY 8 Explore around Angel Falls

Today we continue exploring Auyan-Tepui by river.

Overnight: Basic Camping

DAY 9 Motorised canoe to Canaima, fly to Ciudad Bolivar

On our final day on the river, we continue to Canaima. On arrival, there is a chance to visit Salto el Sapo nearby. At this waterfall it is possible to walk behind the curtain of falling water as it tumbles into the lagoon (Approx. 1.5 hrs). Canaima is located on a wide stretch of the Carrao River known as Canaima Lagoon. Facing us is the beautiful sweep of the Hacha Falls which continuously pour amber-tinted water (from the tannin leached from the rainforest) into the lagoon. With the backdrop of distant and mysterious tepuis and a foreground of a sandy beach and palm trees, this is a fitting final highlight to our river journey of adventure. We then transfer from our canoes to the airport where we will board our plane to Ciudad Bolivar, a 45 minute flight.

Overnight: Simple Hotel

DAY 10 Fly to Barinas

Today we fly from Ciudad Bolivar via Caracas to Barinas and drive to Canafistola ranch. Barinas is a commercial centre and gateway to the Venezuelan Andes, the Columbian border and the Hot Plains or Llanos. Alligators, anacondas and anteaters are frequently spotted in the Llanos. This vast area contained between the Andes and the Orinoco is the largest wilderness area in Venezuela.

Overnight: Standard Hotel

 Included Meals: Breakfast

DAY 11 In the Venezuelan wetlands of Canafistola

We continue our journey via Puerto Nutrias through this little visited showcase of tropical wildlife – one of the finest areas in the world to see birds and animals – and make our way to our base for the next 2 days. On our stay at a working cattle ranch we hope to see alligator, anaconda, capabari, turtle, freshwater dolphin and armadillo. We may be lucky enough to spot the huge Orinoco crocodile and the giant anteater as well as over 100 of the 750 species of birds found in the area. We may also see the Venezuelan cowboys close up as they work with the cattle on the ranch. We will have an opportunity to fish in the rivers where we can expect to catch piranhas!

Overnight: Basic Camping

DAY 12 Exploring Canafistola

Today we continue to explore Canafistola in the morning and in the afternoon we make the return drive to Barinas, hopefully spotting some wildlife on the way out of the area.
